BRAVES EXECUTIVES

TERRY McGUIRK

Chairman

Terry McGuirk is Chairman & CEO of Atlanta Braves Holdings, LLC, the parent company of the Atlanta Braves and Braves Development Company. In his role as Chairman and Control Person of the Atlanta Braves, McGuirk maintains executive oversight over all aspects of the Braves franchise including team and player personnel operations, business operations, Truist Park and representation of the Braves at Major League Baseball ownership meetings. McGuirk is also the Chairman of Braves Development Company, the Braves real estate development entity that owns and operates The Battery Atlanta mixed use development adjacent to Truist Park.

Additionally, in tandem with Derek Schiller, McGuirk oversaw the 2026 launch of BravesVision, a multimedia platform owned and operated by the organization that will become the official local television home of the Braves. The new endeavor will feature multiple viewing options for fans as a video service provider, while also broadcasting over the air and via streaming.

In 2021, McGuirk oversaw the holistic organizational efforts that culminated in the Braves' fourth World Series title.

McGuirk spent 35 years at Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS), beginning in 1972 as an account executive with WTCG, which later became TBS Superstation. In 1973, he assumed the same role at TBS-owned WRET in Charlotte, N.C. McGuirk returned to Atlanta in 1975 as director of cable relations, where he was instrumental in the launch of TBS Superstation and played a key role in the launch of every Turner network through 2001.

In 1978, McGuirk was named director of special projects for TBS, Inc. and in 1979, was appointed vice president of TBS, Inc. From 1987 to 1991, he served as president of Turner Network Sales and CNN International Sales, Ltd., where he set up the company's international sales and distribution operations. He was elected to the TBS, Inc. board of directors in July 1987. Concurrently, McGuirk was president of Turner Sports, where, during his tenure, he was instrumental in securing coverage of the Olympics for cable television for the first time and oversaw the resurgence of the winningest team in baseball, the Atlanta Braves.

As executive vice president, McGuirk served as the company's second in command from 1991 to 1996. When TBS, Inc. merged with Time Warner Inc. in 1996, he succeeded R.E. (Ted) Turner as chairman, president and CEO.

He served as chairman and chief executive officer of the company until March 2001. From that point through 2003, McGuirk was vice chairman of Turner Broadcasting System Inc., along with being chief executive officer of the company-owned Atlanta sports teams, including the Major League Baseball Braves, the National Basketball Association Hawks and the National Hockey League Thrashers.

McGuirk has served on the board of many cable industry-related groups and the International Olympic Committee's Radio and Television Commission. He was the 1989 recipient of the NCTA Vanguard Award for Young Leadership and was inducted into the fellowship of Cable Television Pioneers at the 1996 NCTA Convention.

A native of Bayshore, N.Y., McGuirk is a graduate of Portsmouth Abbey School and holds a bachelor of arts degree in American history from Middlebury College.

McGuirk is on the MLB Executive Council and is the chairman of multiple MLB committees: the Economic Reform Committee, the Finance Committee and the Media Committee. He also serves on the MLB Ownership Committee.

He is a Trustee Emeritus of both Piedmont Healthcare and The Westminster Schools. McGuirk was the 2000 recipient of the Anti-Defamation League's Stewart Lewengrub Torch of Liberty Award. In 2006, he received the Governors Award from the southeastern chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences and, in 2010, he entered the Cable Television Hall of Fame.

Terry and his wife, Nancy, live in Atlanta and have four children.

ATLANTA BRAVES OWNERSHIP

The Atlanta Braves are wholly owned and operated by Atlanta Braves Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: BATRA/BATRK), a publicly traded company which consists of the Major League Baseball franchise the Atlanta Braves, and a real estate portfolio including the mixed-use development The Battery Atlanta, which is located adjacent to the Braves stadium, Truist Park.

The Braves have a long history of operating in various corporate ownerships beginning in 1976 with TBS, where it was owned until 2007. At that point, the Braves were acquired by Liberty Media, who owned the team until 2023. In 2023, the Braves completed a full split from Liberty Media and now operate as a stand-alone, publicly-traded entity.

DEREK SCHILLER

President and CEO, Atlanta Braves

In his 23rd season with the Atlanta Braves, President and Chief Executive Officer Derek Schiller manages all business and ballpark functions of the team. Schiller oversees revenue-driven areas including corporate partnerships, ticket sales, broadcasting, licensing, special events, retail merchandise, and concessions. Additionally, Schiller manages all service-driven departments including client and guest services, ticket operations, alumni relations, communications, community relations, marketing, people capital, and ballpark operations. Within his capacity, Schiller establishes the strategic direction for the Atlanta Braves, steers the Braves brand, advocates for innovation throughout all aspects of the enterprise, and oversees the diverse and skilled Braves workforce.

Additionally, in tandem with Terry McGuirk, Schiller oversaw the 2026 launch of BravesVision, a multimedia platform owned and operated by the organization that will become the official local television home of the Braves. The new endeavor will feature multiple viewing options for fans as a video service provider, while also broadcasting over the air and via streaming.

Schiller also leads the team relationships with Gray Media and Dickey Broadcasting, which operates the Braves Radio Network, the largest radio affiliate network in MLB.

Schiller works closely and collaboratively with Braves Chairman Terry McGuirk, President of Baseball Operations Alex Anthopoulos and President of Braves Development Company Mike Plant.

Schiller has played a pivotal role in leading the front office to increase attendance and improve the fan experience, hosting over 2.9 million fans at Truist Park in each of the last four seasons. An industry leader in business analytics, fan engagement, and mobile ticketing and ordering, Schiller's forward-thinking approach is widely recognized within the professional sports industry. Additionally, he supervised the establishment of the team's diversity and inclusion marketing department (now A.C.E.), making the Braves the first team in Major League Baseball to formalize a department dedicated to diversity engagement.

Under Schiller's direction, the Braves have introduced many technical developments, including digital ticketing, variable and dynamic pricing, A.I. integrations and a Customer Relationship Management system that has enhanced customer experience and data management for both corporate partners and ticket holders. During his tenure, the organization has also placed a focus on expanding fan outreach by creating engaging content on all social media platforms.

Outside of the ballpark, Schiller and the executive team lead the strategic vision for The Battery Atlanta, ensuring its seamless integration with Truist Park. This groundbreaking approach to incorporating a substantial real estate development alongside a new ballpark has garnered global recognition.

As part of the Braves' executive leadership team, Schiller was instrumental in securing plans for Truist Park and The Battery Atlanta and played a pivotal role throughout the design and execution phases of the project. Collaborating with Truist Park planners and architects, Schiller and the executive team tailored the ballpark to authentically represent the organization and its rich history, while creating unique gameday experiences for fans and visitors. Schiller's emphasis on innovation was the driving force behind many of these enhancements, along with technology partnerships that made Truist Park the most technologically advanced venue in all of sports.

Schiller joined the Braves in November 2003 as senior vice president of sales and marketing and was promoted to executive vice president of sales and marketing in August 2007. He came to the Braves after serving as vice president of sales and marketing for the Atlanta Thrashers hockey team since 1998. In that position, he led the development of the Thrashers as an expansion franchise in the National Hockey League, which included the management of all business operations and marketing.

Before joining the Thrashers, Schiller served as vice president of business development for the New York Yankees from 1996 to 1997. While there, he was responsible for all revenue-producing and related functions, including sponsorship sales, marketing, ticket and suite sales, publications, concessions and merchandising, fan services and licensing. He was instrumental in putting together one of the largest sponsorship deals in sports between the Yankees and Adidas.

Schiller earned a degree in engineering from Vanderbilt University. He is on the board of directors of the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, serves as an executive board member of the Atlanta Convention and Visitors Bureau, and is a board member of the Atlanta Sports Council, the Cobb Chamber of Commerce, and the Jack and Jill Late Stage Cancer Foundation. He also serves on the Truist Atlanta Advisory Council and a number of MLB committees. Schiller is an active member of Leadership Atlanta and supports several metro Atlanta charities. Schiller and his wife, Kristin, live in Atlanta and have two children, Luke and Carson.

MIKE PLANT

President and CEO, Braves Development Company

Mike Plant is in his 23rd season with the Atlanta Braves, and his ninth as President and Chief Executive Officer of Braves Development Company. Plant joined the organization as Executive Vice President of Business Operations in November of 2003.

In his role, Plant oversees the Braves' real estate and development holdings including The Battery Atlanta, its development and project management teams, design, financing, construction and leasing activities. Braves and Battery security, life safety, parking and government relations are all consolidated under Plant's leadership. He also works with key Braves executives managing the Spring Training complex in North Point, Florida.

As part of the Braves executive leadership team, Plant was instrumental in the Braves' efforts to secure and plan Truist Park and the adjacent mixed-use development, The Battery Atlanta, which opened in Cobb County in April 2017. The creative and innovative approach Plant led since inception has been recognized as a leading example of how to structure a successful Public/Private partnership now generating substantial returns for multiple government entities. Oversight and direct responsibility for managing all aspects of design, project management, financing, leasing and construction led to delivering approximately 2.5MM square feet in less than 36 months. A $300MM, 800,000 square foot phase two of The Battery Atlanta began in July 2018. The hallmark of this phase is led by thyssenkrupp, the global leader in urban mobility, and Papa John's Pizza creating their new headquarters at The Battery Atlanta.

Plant also spearheaded Atlanta Braves Holdings' effort in acquiring Pennant Park, a six-building office complex adjacent to The Battery Atlanta. The development features more than 750,000 square feet of office space situated on 34 acres of land.

Plant joined the Braves after having served as Executive Vice President of Turner Sports since February 2002. In that position, he was in charge of the day-to-day operations of the division, a $500-million acquisition, promotion and production company that broadcast approximately 1,200 hours of sports programming on various Turner networks.

Before becoming Executive Vice President of Turner Sports, Plant was President of Ted Turner's multi-sport event, The Goodwill Games, and Vice President of Events for Turner Sports. He was responsible for the overall direction and management of The Goodwill Games, as well as all sports properties acquired by Turner Sports.

Prior to joining Turner Sports, Plant was Owner and President of Medalist Sports, a full-service sports marketing company he founded in 1988. Medalist Sports created and operated premier professional cycling events in the United States and China. In addition, Plant was the Associate Executive Director of the United States Cycling Federation in Colorado Springs, Colo., from 1986 to 1988 and the Executive Director of the Canoe and Kayak Team from 1985 to 1986.

Plant was a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic speedskating team in Lake Placid, NY, and a six-time member of the U.S. World Championship speedskating teams. Since 1980, he has chaired numerous committees and boards for the U.S. Olympic Committee (USOC), the U.S. International Speedskating Association, International Cycling Federation, and USA Cycling. Plant served on the Atlanta Committee for the 1996 Olympic Games (ACOG) Board of Directors and the Board of Trustees for the Salt Lake City Olympic Bid Committee for the 2002 Winter Games.

Plant served two eight-year terms on the USOC's Board of Directors and Executive Committee (1984-1992 and 2003-2011). He was Chairman of the USOC Athletes Council, and Chairman of the Athlete Performance Group (1992-1996). Plant was President of USA Cycling, the National Governing Body for Olympic cycling, from 1995 to 2002, and President of U.S. Speedskating from 2013-2018. Additionally, he served as Chairman of the Cobb Chamber (2024-2025), and currently serves as Vice Chair of the Cumberland Community Improvement District (CCID).

Internationally, Plant served on the International Cycling Federation's (UCI) Executive Committee for 20 years and was President of three different commissions. In 2009, Plant was elected U.S. Olympic Chef de Mission for the Olympic team for the 2010 Vancouver Olympic Games. He currently serves on the Utah Sports Commission Executive Committee and The Sport Committee for the 2034 Utah Olympic Games.

He and his wife Mary have two daughters, Erika and Maddie, and a son, Drew.

ALEX ANTHOPOULOS

President, Baseball Operations and General Manager

Alex Anthopoulos is in his ninth season with the Braves. He joined the club in November 2017 as the executive vice president and general manager. In February 2020, Anthopoulos was promoted to president, baseball operations and general manager, and received a contract extension. He received an additional extension on January 12, 2024, which will keep him with the club through the 2031 season.

The Braves won the 2021 World Series under his guidance and appeared in the playoffs in seven straight seasons after he took the helm, including six straight N.L. East titles to begin his tenure. The club has compiled a 680-513 (.570) record under his leadership.

He is the 12th Braves general manager since the franchise moved to Atlanta in 1966.

Anthopoulos, who reports to Chairman Terry McGuirk, oversees all aspects of the club's baseball operations. He came to the Braves after spending the 2016 and 2017 seasons as the Los Angeles Dodgers' vice president of baseball operations.

He joined the Dodgers in January 2016 following six seasons as the Toronto Blue Jays' general manager, which culminated in an American League East title in 2015 to snap Toronto's 22-year postseason drought.

Anthopoulos began his baseball career with the Montreal Expos as a media relations intern in 2000 before transitioning to international scouting and serving as Montreal's coordinator for amateur and professional scouting for the 2002 and 2003 seasons. The Expos expanded his duties in 2003, adding the title of Scouting Supervisor for Canada.

He joined Toronto following the 2003 season as a scouting coordinator and earned a promotion to vice president, baseball operations and assistant general manager on January 8, 2006. On October 3, 2009, he accepted the position of senior vice president, baseball operations and general manager.

Anthopoulos was named Baseball America's Executive of the Year in 2022. Furthermore, he was selected as Sporting News' MLB Executive of the Year at the conclusion of the 2015 campaign – the only executive in Blue Jays history to achieve the honor.

Born May 25, 1977, Anthopoulos is a native of Montreal, Quebec. He is fluent in English and French, and also speaks some Spanish and Greek. With his Greek descent, he lent his services to the Greek National baseball team around the 2003 European Championships before helping to assemble the Greek national team for the 2004 Olympics in Athens.

Anthopoulos attended Lower Canada College and Marianopolis College before majoring in economics at McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario.

He and his wife, Cristina, have a daughter, Julia, and a son, John.

BRAVES GENERAL MANAGERS

Alex Anthopoulos is the 12th general manager in club history. Bill Lucas, who is listed below, never received the title of general manager, but performed all the duties of the position.

GREG HELLER

Executive Vice President, Chief Legal Officer

The 2026 season marks Greg Heller's 26th as legal counsel to the Braves. As Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer, Heller manages and oversees all legal affairs for the Braves. Heller also has ultimate oversight for all legal issues related to Truist Park, The Battery Atlanta and for the Braves' spring training facility, CoolToday Park, and had ultimate oversight for all legal matters related to the negotiation, planning and development of all three projects for the Braves organization.

Heller's responsibilities and duties include providing guidance and counsel on baseball operations matters, sales and marketing, broadcasting, stadium and business operations, intellectual property, corporate governance, legislative affairs, employment and litigation.

Prior to serving as Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer of the Braves, Heller spent nearly seven years with the TBS sports legal group which included the Braves, the Atlanta Hawks, the Atlanta Thrashers, Philips Arena, the Goodwill Games, the Turner Sports television group (and its NBA, NASCAR, PGA, British Open and MLB properties), and the Turner Sports new media group (and its NASCAR, PGA and PGA TOUR and ACC Select properties).

Heller began his career in sports law as an undergraduate at Indiana University where he graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Sports Marketing/Management. While at Indiana, Heller completed internships with the Peoria Chiefs, a minor league affiliate of the Chicago Cubs, and with the Indiana University athletic department.

Upon graduating from IU, Heller entered law school at Marquette University. While at Marquette, Heller was an active participant in the sports law program, including serving as a member and Student Articles Editor of the Marquette Sports Law Journal, serving as a member of the Sports Law Society, authoring a law review article on the NCAA enforcement process and completing internships with the National Sports Law Institute, Harley Davidson, the Milwaukee Brewers and Reece & Lang PC, the legal division of an Atlanta-based sports management firm.

Upon graduating from Marquette, Heller became an Associate Attorney with the Atlanta firm of Powell Goldstein Frazer & Murphy (now part of Bryan Cave) where he concentrated his practice on general corporate, mergers and acquisitions, securities and sports and entertainment law matters from 1996 to 1997. In the Fall of 1997, Heller joined the Chicago law firm of Horwood Marcus & Berk and continued his practice in general corporate, mergers and acquisitions and sports and entertainment law matters before joining TBS in the Fall of 2000.

Heller serves on the Marquette University Law School Sports Law Advisory Board. In 2004, Heller was named Marquette Law School Sports Law Alumnus of the Year, and in 2024, was named Law School Alumnus of the Year. In 2017, Heller was named the W.W. Patty Distinguished Alumnus by the Indiana University School of Public Health.

Heller and his wife, Krista, live in Atlanta and have four children, Madelyn, Charlie, John and Elizabeth.

JILL ROBINSON

Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer

Jill Robinson is in her ninth season with the Braves after joining the organization in April 2018 as chief financial officer and executive vice president.

In her role, Robinson oversees the Braves' entire accounting and finance operations, leading a team of 25 finance and accounting professionals. Robinson also manages the Braves' financial interests in The Battery Atlanta, the world-class mixed use real estate development located around Truist Park.

Prior to joining the Braves, Robinson worked for McKesson Corporation for 16 years in both San Francisco and Atlanta, serving in a variety of roles for the Fortune 50 company. At the time of her departure, Robinson was the chief financial officer and senior vice president for McKesson Technology Solutions, a $3 billion healthcare technology company.

She began her career at McKesson in 2001 as a director in the procurement finance department, managing a team that provided all accounting and finance functions for the pharmaceutical purchasing organization. Robinson moved to a director's role in Investor Relations in April 2004, before she was promoted to Vice President of Internal Audit in November 2005.

In March 2010, Robinson became the chief financial officer and vice president of RelayHealth Pharmacy, growing a three-person department to a team of 35 during her tenure.

In November 2011, Robinson became the chief financial officer and senior vice president for McKesson Provider Technology, a company worth over $2 billion. Her team of 250 supported several acquisitions and subsequent integration efforts, while also sponsoring a major legal entity streamlining process.

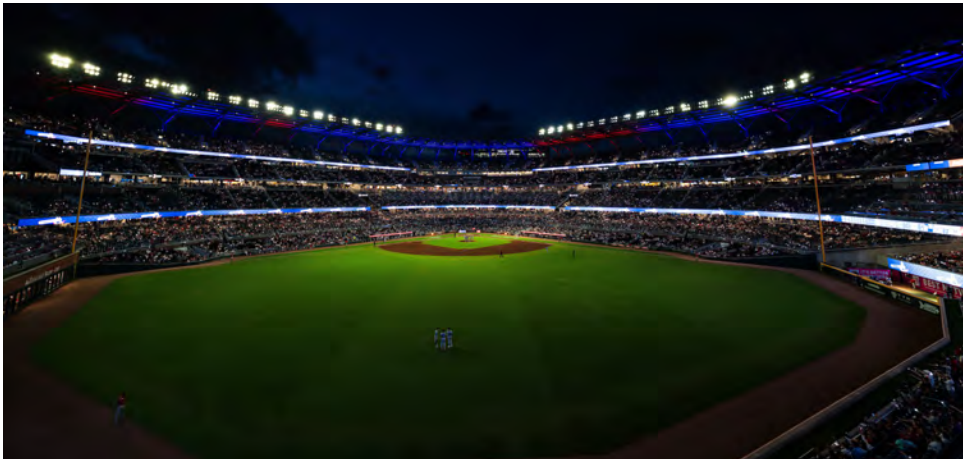
She was named chief financial officer and senior vice president of McKesson Technology Solutions in February of 2013, and oversaw a team of over 350 for the next four-plus years until joining the Braves.

Robinson began her professional career in 1992 in Indianapolis with Deloitte & Touche, before serving as Controller for Tambourine, Inc., an independent record label, in San Francisco from 2000 to 2001.

A native of Naperville, Ill., Robinson graduated from the University of Illinois with a degree in accountancy in 1992. She became a certified public accountant in November of that year.

Jill has always had a passion for career development and supporting women in the workforce, and has served as a founder and executive sponsor of McKesson women's employee resource groups, OWNIT-Bay Area and OWNIT-Georgia, and a founder and executive sponsor of the McKesson Career Development Council – Bay Area & Atlanta. Robinson was also a steering committee member on McKesson's Finance Rotational Development Program. She currently serves on the Advisory Board for the Atlanta CFO Forum, and in 2021, was recognized by the CFO Forum as Atlanta's Preeminent CFO. She is also the Vice President of Finance for the Board of Directors of the Atlanta Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America and the Secretary of the Board of Directors of ArtsNow.

Robinson lives in Johns Creek with her husband, Rob, and their two children, daughter, Chloe, and son, Tyler.



CHIP MOORE

Executive Vice President & Senior Advisor

The 2026 season marks Chip Moore's 49th with the Braves organization. Moore, executive vice president and senior advisor, assists the Braves' executive board with long-term planning and oversees the club's spring training facility and Florida operations, as well as advising on Atlanta concessions and retail operations. Moore spent nine years (2009-17) as the Braves' chief financial officer, after spending 12 seasons (1997-2008) as senior vice president and controller. He was named to his current position on February 5, 2018.

Moore was instrumental in the Braves' efforts to secure Truist Park and the club's mixed-use development, The Battery Atlanta, both of which opened in 2017. Moore played an important role in lease negotiations, relocation, design and construction of minor league ballparks in Rome, Ga., Pearl, Miss., and Gwinnett, Ga.

For over 25 years, Moore led the Braves' finance and accounting function and played a key role in Braves successes both on and off the field. This included managing financial tasks associated with Braves postseason runs, MLB's 2000 All-Star Game in Atlanta and the many challenges associated with the moves from Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium to Turner Field and finally to Truist Park.

In addition, Moore was an instrumental figure in the lease negotiation, design and construction of the Braves' spring training complex in North Port, Fla., in Sarasota County.

Moore steadily moved up through the organization during his tenure. He began as an usher at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium before working nine seasons as a member of the Braves grounds crew. In 1985, he joined the Braves accounting department and rose to assistant controller in 1988 and controller in 1992 before becoming chief financial officer in 2009 and named to his current position in 2018.

Moore also worked on the establishment of the Braves charitable entity, the Atlanta Braves Foundation, and has served on its Board of Directors since its inception.

Moore graduated from Oglethorpe University in 1985 with a degree in business administration, majoring in accounting.

He currently serves on Major League Baseball's Non-Unifromed Personnel Pension Committee and previously served on the Minor League Baseball Board of Trustees for 14 years, and on the Board of Directors of the South Atlantic League of Professional Baseball for 29 years, including 20 years as its vice president. In 2006, Moore was inducted into the South Atlantic League Hall of Fame for his contributions to the Rome Braves and the SAL. Additionally, Moore has served on the Board of Directors for the International League and Southern League of Professional Baseball. Locally, he serves on the AdvisoryBoard of Atlanta Area Council of Boy Scouts.

Chip and his wife, Anne, reside in Kennesaw, Ga., and have two children, Jordan and Will.

She is the author of Courage of Voice: Empowering Women to Open Professional Doors.

Dr. Rhodes lives in Atlanta, Ga. with her husband, Leon, and her three sons, Cole, Austin and Jordan.

JEREMY STRIFE

Executive Vice President, Development

Jeremy Strife is the Executive Vice President of Development for the Atlanta Braves, where he oversees daily leasing, property management, and future development of the Braves Development Company. Strife was brought into the Atlanta Braves organization in 2015 to spearhead the development of The Battery Atlanta, the 2.25-million-square-foot mixed-use campus surrounding Truist Park.

As part of the Braves executive leadership team, Strife was instrumental in BDC's April 2025 acquisition of Pennant Park – a 32-acre, six-building office complex adjacent to Truist Park. BDC's groundbreaking strategy has become a benchmark for future stadium-centric projects, utilizing sports entertainment to stimulate economic growth and enriching the guest experience well beyond game days.

Following the grand opening of The Battery Atlanta in 2017, Strife assumed leadership of the Braves Security Services and Braves Parking Services teams and acted as the head of Braves Health Preparedness, guiding the company through 2.5 years of the evolving COVID19 pandemic.

Strife serves on the Cobb Chamber Board of Directors, SelectCobb Board of Directors, and Cobb Transportation & Mobility Committee.

Prior to joining the Braves, Strife spent nine years with S&P 100 company, Simon Property Group (NYSE:SPG), where he specialized in completing over $3B in asset acquisition transitions, developments, redevelopments, and asset management with over $80M in EBITDA accountability at time of departure.

A native of Carthage, N.Y., Jeremy and his wife Ellen reside in Cobb County. He is a graduate of Indiana University in Bloomington, where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Public Affairs Law.

JOHN SCHUERHOLZ

Vice Chairman, Emeritus

Named Vice Chairman Emeritus by the Braves in 2018, John Schuerholz is in his 61st year in professional baseball and his 36th season in Atlanta. He served as club president for eight-and-a-half years before being named vice chairman in March 2016.

As president and then as vice chairman, Schuerholz was instrumental in the planning and building of Truist Park and the mixed-use development, The Battery Atlanta, which opened in April 2017.

Schuerholz received the game's highest honor in December 2016, when he was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. He was formally inducted into the illustrious organization in Cooperstown, N.Y., on July 30, 2017.

Following 26 years as a Major League general manager, from 1982 to 2007, Schuerholz stepped aside as GM after the 2007 season and was named president of the Braves on October 11, 2007. He spent 17 seasons as the Braves' executive vice president and general manager, from 1991 to 2007.

Schuerholz came to the Braves from the Kansas City Royals in October 1990. Under his leadership and guidance as a GM, the Braves achieved unprecedented success, compiling the best record in baseball over those 17 seasons from 1991 to 2007 (1,594-1,092; .593). The Braves established an American professional sports record by winning 14 consecutive division titles from 1991 to 2005 (the 1994 season was not played to completion).

The Braves won five National League pennants, one World Series and several "organization of the year" awards. The club won 100-or-more games six times under Schuerholz, including five times in seven seasons from 1997 to 2003.

During his career with Baltimore, Kansas City and Atlanta, Schuerholz has been associated with four World Champions (1966, 1985, 1995, 2021), nine pennant winners and 22 division crowns. In 2004, to honor his nearly 40 years of success at the major league level, Baseball America named him the recipient of the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award. Atlanta's overall success in 2005 also helped the Braves earn Baseball America's prestigious Organization of the Year award.

When the Braves won the 1995 World Series, Schuerholz became the first executive to be general manager of world championship teams in both the American and National Leagues. In his 26 years as a general manager with Kansas City and Atlanta, his teams totaled an amazing 2,348 wins.

During Schuerholz's time with Kansas City, the Royals won one World Championship, two American League pennants and six division crowns. The Sporting News selected him as the Major League Executive of the Year in 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

Schuerholz was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2016 and the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in February 2015. In January 2014, he was honored with the Outstanding Achievement in Baseball Award by the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation. He was inducted into the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame in 2008 and the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum recognized John as the National League Executive of the Year with its Andrew "Rube" Foster Award in 2001, 2002 and 2005. After the Braves' 1991 worst-to-first performance, Schuerholz was named the Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writers Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group, Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend Magazine.

Schuerholz has served on a variety of Major League Baseball's committees throughout his career, including being appointed by then-Commissioner "Bud" Selig to chair the newly-formed Instant Replay Committee. In three years, the committee oversaw the implementation of expanded replay, creating a modernized, effective system for replay reviews. Schuerholz has also served as chairman of the Pace of Game Committee, and on the Playing Rules Committee.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz left a job as a junior high school teacher to join the Orioles in 1966. He moved to Kansas City two years later, and as an administrative assistant, was involved in the expansion draft that created the first-ever Royals roster. He was named Assistant Farm Director in 1970 and became Farm Director in 1975. He was promoted to director of player procurement and development in 1976 and vice president, player personnel in 1979. The Royals named Schuerholz executive vice president and general manager in October of 1981, when he was 41.

Born October 1, 1940, Schuerholz is a graduate of Towson (MD) University, where he played soccer and baseball. He was an all-conference choice in baseball and the school's Athlete of the Year in 1962. He was inducted into Towson's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1973 and served on the school's Board of Visitors. Towson's baseball facility is named John Schuerholz Park.

Schuerholz's book, "Built to Win: Inside Stories and Leadership Strategies from Baseball's Winningest GM," was released in the spring of 2006.

He and his wife, Karen, have two children, Gina and Jonathan, and four grandchildren. Jonathan has been in the Braves organization since 2002.

BOBBY COX

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Bobby Cox is in his 16th season in a consulting role for the Braves after retiring from his legendary managerial career following the 2010 campaign.

Cox was awarded baseball's highest honor in 2014, when he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, along with fellow managers Tony La Russa and Joe Torre and former players Tom Glavine, Greg Maddux and Frank Thomas.

On September 23, 2009, the Braves announced that Cox had agreed to a contract extension for the 2010 season, and Cox himself announced that he would retire from managing at the conclusion of the 2010 campaign. As part of his contract extension, Cox was given a consulting agreement. In his role, he advises and consults in all areas of baseball operations, including the Major League Club, spring training, minor league operations and scouting. In addition, Cox works with the office of the president on special business projects.

Cox spent 29 seasons as a Major League skipper, including 25 seasons in two stints at the helm of the Braves. His 2,504 wins rank fourth all-time and include a franchise-best 2,149 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox posted an overall career record of 2,504-2,001-3 (.556). He won his 2,500th game on September 25, 2010, at Washington.

In his final season in 2010, the Braves went 91-71 and claimed the first National League Wild Card in franchise history. The 2010 campaign was Cox's 15th with 90-or-more wins. That tied him for second all-time in 90-win seasons with Hall of Fame skipper Joe McCarthy, one behind John McGraw's record 16. Cox and McCarthy are the only managers in Major League history to compile six 100-win seasons.

Cox won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 straight in Atlanta that led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). He had a string of 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 to 2005, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time behind Joe McCarthy (20) and Sparky Anderson (17) for the most consecutive winning campaigns.

Cox was voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers' Association of America four times (1985 with Toronto and 1991, 2004 and 2005 with Atlanta). The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the league's top skipper seven times with the Braves and eight times overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than four times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936. In 1991, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year, as he became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

He brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports world championship in 1995, when the Braves defeated Cleveland, four-games-to-two, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise had won a World Series in three different cities.

In 1993, the Braves won 104 games and became the first National League West team to win three straight division titles. The Braves' 400 Club honored Cox with its "Mr. Baseball" award that season.

The Braves' performance in 1991, when they went from worst-to-first and participated in one of the most dramatic World Series in history, earned Cox several postseason honors. Among others, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year. Cox became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to 1981, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by finishing 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America, the Associated Press and Sporting News.

Cox returned to the Braves as general manager in October 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for great success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz as general manager in October of that year.

Cox spent five years in the Dodgers' farm system before being selected by the Chicago Cubs in the November 1964 Minor League Draft. He was acquired by the Braves in a 1966 trade that sent outfielder Billy Cowan to the Cubs. After playing for Triple-A Richmond in 1967, he was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team in 1968, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in '69.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire as a player at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class-A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. He served as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977.

Born May 21, 1941, in Tulsa, Okla., Cox graduated from Selma (Calif.) High School in 1959 and attended Reedley Junior College.

He and his wife, Pam, reside in Marietta, Ga. They have three daughters, Keisha, Kami and Skyla. He has five other children, Debbie, Bobby Jr., Connie, Shelly and Randy.

BRIAN SNITKER

Special Assistant to the General Manager

The 2026 season marks Brian Snitker's 50th in the Braves organization, and his first in the capacity of special advisor. In his newly-minted role, he will assist the club in a variety of aspects with regard to baseball operations, including personnel decisions, scouting, and strategic planning.

He is slated to enter the Braves Hall of Fame during the 2026 season.

In his 10 seasons at the helm for Atlanta, he skippered the club to an 811-668 record (.548) and guided the club to the 2021 World Series title. He led the club to the postseason seven time during his tenure and was a six-time champion of the National League East division.

Snitker's 811 managerial wins rank third in franchise history, only trailing Hall of Famers Bobby Cox (2,149) and Frank Selee (1.004). Those victories also stand as the second most by any MLB manager since his managerial debut, behind just Dave Roberts of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

He collected his 800th career victory on September 8 of the 2025 season, becoming the 86th manager in baseball history to win at least 800 games and just the 43rd to win at least 800 with a single team. Of those to win 800 with one team, Snitker is just the 12th in history to skipper no other clubs throughout his career.

During his career, has was a four-time finalist for the BBWAA National League Manager of the Year award, securing the honor in 2018. He also earned manager of the year awards from Sporting News (twice, 2018-19) and Baseball America (2020).

Before skippering at the major-league level, Snitker had three other stints on the big-league staff. He was the third base coach for seven seasons, from 2007-13, under Bobby Cox and Fredi González...Also had two separate stints as the bullpen coach, first in 1985 and then from 1988-90.

Snitker managed for 20 seasons in the minor leagues, compiling a 1,301-1,309 (.498) record, while five of his clubs advanced to postseason play. He was named Manager of the Year twice while in the minor leagues, winning the award in 1999 and 2000 with Single-A Myrtle Beach.

A native of Macon, Illinois, Snitker joined the organization as a non-drafted free agent in 1977 after playing collegiately at the University of New Orleans.

Snitker and his wife, Veronica, reside in Marietta, Ga....They have two children, Erin and Troy, and three grandchildren...Troy currently serves as the hitting coach for the New York Mets.

DOB: November 28, 1963 Opening Day Age: 62
Born: Suffern, NY Resides: Parker, CO
Seasons as the Braves Manager: 1st
Seasons as a Major League Manager: 5th

- Was named by Atlanta as the 49th manager in franchise history on November 3 and enters his first season at the helm of the club...The 2026 season is his fifth in total as a major league manager, after skippering the Colorado Rockies for four seasons from 2013-2016.
- Weiss played the final three seasons of a 14-year major league career with Atlanta, appearing in 286 games with the Braves from 1998 through 2000.
  - He is the 21st manager in franchise history to also play in the majors for the club, and the first since Chuck Tanner skippered Atlanta from 1986 to 1988 following three seasons with the Milwaukee Braves from 1955 through 1957...11 of the 21 to hold both positions did so as player/manager simultaneously.
  - Other notable figures to serve the franchise in separate stints as both a player and a manager include Joe Torre (player, 1960-68; manager, 1982-84), Eddie Mathews (player, 1952-66; manager, 1972-74), Billy Southworth (player, 1921-23; manager, 1946-51), Casey Stengel (player, 1924-25; manager, 1938-43) and Bill McKechnie (player, 1913; manager, 1930-37)... All five are National Baseball Hall of Famers.
  - Research courtesy the Elias Sports Bureau.

- The 2026 season will be Richardson's first with the Braves and his seventh on a major league coaching staff...He will act as the club's first base coach...Named to the role on November 5, 2025.
- Before joining the Braves, Richardson was the first base coach, outfield coordinator and baserunning instructor for the New York Mets during the 2024 and '25 seasons.
  - In the two seasons under Richardson, Mets baserunners owned the highest stolen base percentage (86.3%, 253-for-293) of all major league teams in that stretch.
  - Mets' outfielders accounted for the fourth-fewest errors (18) in MLB between 2024 and '25.
- Richardson's first major league coaching experience came as a first base coach while also overseeing baserunning and outfield instruction with the San Francisco Giants from 2020 to '23... He became the first major league coach from the Bahamas.
  - Under Richardson's guidance, current Braves outfielder Mike Yastrzemski was named a Gold Glove finalist in 2021.
  - Upon his ejection from a game on April 12, 2022, Richardson was replaced by fellow coach Alyssa Nakken, who became the first woman to appear in uniform in a major league game.
- Began his coaching career as a baseball operations fellow with the Toronto Blue Jays in 2017...Promoted to a minor league outfield coordinator with Toronto in 2018 and joined San Francisco's organization as a minor league field and outfield coordinator in 2019.
- Played in nine major league games with Atlanta in 2011 and 13 with New York-AL in 2014, marking his only major league experience across a professional career that spanned from 2005-16.
  - Made his major league debut with Atlanta on September 4, 2011, in a pinch-hit appearance against Clayton Kershaw and recorded a single for his first career hit.
  - Richardson is one of nine players born in the Bahamas to reach the majors and became the first to do so since Wil Culmer with Cleveland in 1983.
  - As a pinch-runner on September 25, 2014, Richardson scored on a walk-off single from Derek Jeter in Jeter's final game at Yankee Stadium.
- Richardson was selected by the San Francisco Giants in the 35th round of the 2005 First-Year Player Draft out of Vanderbilt University (Nashville, Tenn.).
  - He was originally selected by Baltimore in the 27th round in 2001 and 2002 and Arizona in the 13th round in 2004 but chose to return to school each time.
- After graduating as the class salutatorian at American Heritage High School in Plantation, Fla., Richardson passed on a full-ride scholarship to Brown University, instead choosing to attend Palm Beach Community College to play baseball in 2001.
  - Richardson transferred to Vanderbilt University prior to the 2004 season... Earned a degree in Engineering Science while playing in the minor leagues in 2008.
- After retiring from baseball in 2017, Richardson founded Project Limestone in the Bahamas...The nonprofit's objective is to create environments that cultivate a curiosity for learning and respect for self and others through academics, athletics and the community.
- Richardson played for Great Britain in the 2013 World Baseball Classic Qualifiers and served as the team's bench coach in the 2023 World Baseball Classic.

2025

- 27-year-old Ronald Acuña Jr. played in his eighth major league season (all with Atlanta), hitting .290 (98-for-338) in 95 games.
  - Missed time due to two different stints on the injured list, first while recovering from left knee ACL reconstruction, then from a Grade 1 calf strain...Appeared in 89 games in right field and four as the designated hitter.
- Started in right and hit leadoff for Atlanta in his season debut, and drove the very first pitch he saw out to left for a home run.
  - The ball left the bat at 115.5 mph and traveled an estimated 467 feet, the hardest-hit and farthest-hit ball by a Braves batter of the season (at that time).
  - Per StatsPerform, Acuña Jr. became the first player in MLB history to miss 150+ games and then hit a leadoff homer in his first game back...The drive was the 35th leadoff homer of his career, extending his own franchise record.
- Since the Braves moved to Atlanta in 1966, Acuña Jr. became just the third player in franchise history to carry an on-base percentage over .500 through their first 28 games (min. 100 plate appearances) of a season.
  - Hall of Famer Henry Aaron (.500) was the first to do so in 1969, before Rico Carty (.504) joined him a year later in 1970.
- Made his season debut in the club's 50th game, and went on to start in the All-Star Game.
  - Per OptaStats, the only other player in MLB history to start the All-Star game despite not making his season debut until his team's 50th game or later was Joe DiMaggio in 1949.

Longest Hitting Streak
16 games, 6/17-7/5/23

- Reached base five times on August 27 without recording a hit, becoming one of just four major leaguers since 2020 to do so.
  - Joey Bart (PIT) was the last to do so on August 1 earlier in 2025...Five Braves have done it in the franchise's modern era, the last being Dale Murphy (5 BB, April 22, 1983).

- On June 14, was named National League Player of the Week.
  - Has now won the award five times in his career.
- On September 8, snapped a 25-at-bat hitless spell, the longest of his career and the longest active in MLB at the time.
  - From that date through the rest of the season, batted .362/.488/.638 (25-for-69) with 16 runs, six homers, 11 RBI and 16 walks...In that timeframe, had the best batting average and on-base percentage in the National League, as well as the most walks.
- Hit three more leadoff home runs in 2025, extending his franchise record to 37 of them.
- Carries a 16-game on-base streak into the offseason, tied for the fifth-longest active in Major League Baseball.

- Ranks highly in numerous modern-era franchise categories.
  - First in leadoff home runs (37), second in stolen bases (205), third in OPS (.908) and fifth in slugging percentage (.524).
- Ranks highly in numerous single-season, modern-era franchise categories.
  - First in plate appearances (735, 2023), runs (149, 2023), stolen bases (73, 2023); second in total bases (383, 2024) and times on base (306, 2023); third in AB/HR (11.4, 2020); fifth in hits (217, 2023); eighth in extra-base hits (80, 2023); tied for ninth in plate appearances (715, 2019).
- He's one of two players in MLB history to reach 185 home runs and 185 stolen bases prior to his age-28 season, along with Mike Trout.
- He's hit a Braves franchise-record 37 leadoff home runs.
  - Of those 37 leadoff shots, 15 have been on the first pitch, tied for the second-most in MLB history, trailing Hall of Famer Craig Biggio (19).
  - Since his debut season in 2018, only Philadelphia's Kyle Schwarber (46), Toronto's George Springer (45) and Los Angeles-NL's Mookie Betts (41) have more leadoff homers.
  - Owns the most stolen bases (205) of any Brave in the Atlanta era (since 1966).
  - Since the modern-day definition of a stolen base was established in 1898, he only trails Hall of Famer Henry Aaron (240) for the most swipes in franchise history.
- Since his debut season in 2018, he's swiped 205 bases...Across the majors, Philadelphia's Trea Turner (234) and Cleveland's José Ramírez (228) are the only players with more.
- Since his debut season in 2018, he's hit 26 home runs of at least 450 feet, most in MLB.
- Playing the eighth year of an eight-year, $100 million extension (2019-26) he signed on April 2, 2019...The deal includes club options for 2027 ($17M, $10M buyout) and 2028 ($17M)...Originally signed with Atlanta as an international free agent from Venezuela on July 2, 2014.
  - At 21 years-old, he became the youngest player in major-league history to sign a $100 million contract.
  - He accrued 165 days of major-league service at the time of the extension...The deal is the largest in history for a player under club control with as little major-league service as Acuña Jr.
- Has made five career Opening Day rosters (2019-21, '23-24), all with Atlanta...Has started on Opening Day five times, doing so in left field once (2019) and right field four times (2020-'21, '23-24).
- Was placed on the injured list on May 27, 2024 with a torn left ACL...Missed the club's final 112 games of the season.
- Recorded two hits and a stolen base, March 29, 2024 at Philadelphia.
  - Became the first player in the franchise's modern era (since 1900) with multiple hits and a stolen base in consecutive season openers (also: March 30, 2023 at Washington) and the first player, league-wide, since Nyjer Morgan (2009 with Pittsburgh and '10 with Washington).
- Reached base safely to lead off the game in nine straight contests, spanning April 16-26, 2024, matching his own run (August 11-18, 2018), for the longest such streak by a Brave in the expansion era (since 1961).

- In 2023, ranked highly in numerous MLB statistic categories:
  - Runs (1st, 149), stolen bases (1st, 73), on-base percentage (1st, .416), hits (1st, 217), total bases (1st, 383), multi-hit games (1st, 69), hard-hit balls (1st, 309), batting average (2nd, .337), avg. exit velo (2nd, 94.7), fWAR (T2nd, 8.3), OPS (3rd, 1.012), extra-base hits (T3rd, 80), slugging percentage (4th, .596), home runs (5th, 41), RBI (T8th, 106).
  - Established career-highs in batting average, on-base percentage, OPS (1.012), runs, hits, doubles, RBI, stolen bases, walks (80) and total bases (383).
- Named the 2023 NL Most Valuable Player, unanimously...Earned all 30 first place votes, the first player in franchise history to hold that distinction.
  - Overall, he is the eighth player, ninth instance, in franchise history to win the award, joining Hall of Famer Johnny Evers (1914 with Boston), Bob Elliott (1947 with Boston), Hall of Famer Henry Aaron (1957 with Milwaukee), Dale Murphy, twice (1982-83), Terry Pendleton (1991), Hall of Famer Chipper Jones (1999) and Freddie Freeman (2020).
  - Was also the recipient of the National League's Hank Aaron Award, presented annually to the best overall offensive performer in each league...He's the third Brave to win the award, following Andruw Jones (2005) and Freddie Freeman (2020).
- Scored 149 runs in 2023, most within a single-season in the franchise's modern era (since 1900).
  - Crossed the plate 41 times in the first inning, most within a single season in franchise history...In the integration era (since 1947), the only players to score more runs, within a single season, are Hall of Famers Ted Williams (150) in 1949 and Jeff Bagwell (152) in 2000.
  - Marked his first season leading the majors in runs and his second pacing the Senior Circuit (127 in 2019).
- In 2023, stole 73 bases in 87 attempts, most within a single-season, in the franchise's modern era (since 1900).
  - The previous mark of 72 was set by Otis Nixon in 1991...Since 2000, the only player with more swipes, within a single-season, is José Reyes (78) in 2007.
  - Marked his first season leading the majors in stolen bases and his second pacing the NL (37 in 2019)...He's the only player in the Atlanta era (since 1966) to pace the league in stolen bases, having done so twice.
- Became the founding member of both the 30 home run/60 stolen base and 40 home run/70 stolen base clubs in 2023.
  - Before him, the highest stolen base total for a player to hit at least 30 home runs in a season was 52 (Barry Bonds in 1990).
  - The high stolen base count for a player with 40 round trippers was 46 (Álex Rodríguez in 1998).
  - He's the fifth player in MLB history with at least 40 home runs and at least 40 stolen bases, within a single-season, joining José Canseco (1988), Bonds (1996), Rodríguez (1998) and Alfonso Soriano (2006).
- Went deep and stole a base, within the same game, 12 times in 2023.
  - The only players in MLB history with more such games, within a single season, are Hall of Famer Rickey Henderson (13) in 1986 and Shohei Ohtani (16) in 2024...Bobby Bonds also had 12 such outings in 1973.
- In 2023, became the seventh player in MLB history to collect at least 200 hits, 100 RBI, 145 runs and 40 home runs, within a single-season.
  - The other six players in baseball history to have such a season - DiMaggio, Lou Gehrig, Jimmie Foxx, Chuck Klein, Hack Wilson and Babe Ruth - are all enshrined in the HOF.
- Reached base safely to lead off a game 72 times (53 hits, 17 walks, two HBP) in 2023.
  - Came around to score 41 times, most within a single-season in franchise history.
  - Singled twice in the first, May 28 vs. Philadelphia, giving him 54 hits in the frame in total; establishing a single-season franchise record...Slashed .378/.451/.615 (54-for-143) with a 1.066 OPS.
  - His .378 batting average was the second-highest first-inning mark (min. 100 PA), within a single-season, in the franchise's modern era (since 1900), behind Buck Jordan (.380) in 1933.

- Since RBI became official in 1920, the only player with more RBI from the leadoff spot than Acuña's 106, within a single-season, is Los Angeles-NL's Mookie Betts (107), also in 2023.
- Stole his 120th career base, April 25, 2023 vs. Miami.
  - With 123 career home runs to that point, he became the fastest player in MLB history, by games played, to eclipse both 120 career home runs and stolen bases, doing so in 538 games.
  - Former Cincinnati Red, Eric Davis accomplished the feat over his first 559 contests, spanning the 1984-89 seasons.
- Stole his National League-leading 30th base of the season, June 16, 2023 versus Colorado.
  - Became the first player in MLB history with at least 15 home runs and 30 stolen bases through their club's first 70 games in a season.
- Hit his 30th home run of the 2023 season (grand slam), August 31 at LAD, off RHP Lance Lynn.
  - With 61 stolen bases to that point, became the founding member of the 30 home run/60 stolen base club.
  - The longball also marked the 150th of his career – making him the fastest player in MLB history, by games played, to eclipse both 150 career home runs and stolen bases (168), doing so in 647 games.
  - Former Cincinnati Red, Eric Davis accomplished the feat over his first 681 contests, spanning the 1984-90 seasons.
- In 2021, played in 82 games before suffering a season-ending ACL tear in his right knee on July 10 at Miami.
  - Started in the leadoff spot in 80 of his 82 games...Had 24 home runs and 72 runs scored when hitting out of the first position.
- His homer on June 20, 2021 versus. St. Louis was the 100th of his career, doing so in just his 378th career game.
  - Became the sixth-fastest to 100 homers in MLB history (Ryan Howard, 324 games; Gary Sánchez, 355; Aaron Judge, 371; Ralph Kiner, 376; Joey Gallo, 377).
- Hit 81 home runs before turning 23 years-old; 16th-most in MLB history before a players 23rd birthday.
  - Of the 15 players ahead of him, Acuña Jr.'s 1,404 plate appearances were the fewest...Giancarlo Stanton (1,498) was the only other player with fewer than 1,800 plate appearances.
- Was selected to his second All-Star Game in 2021 as one of the three starters in the National League outfield, but was unable to play due to injury.
  - Became the fifth player in team history to make multiple All-Star teams by his age-23 season, joining Hank Aaron (3), Joe Torre, Eddie Mathews and Brian McCann (2).
  - Through July 10, he ranked top-10 in the majors in runs (72, 1st), slugging percentage (.596, 4th), home runs (24, 5th) and extra-base hits (44, T8th).
- In the Braves' record-setting 29-9 win over Miami on September 9, 2020, had a single, double, home run, three walks and drove in a single-game career-high five.
  - Became just the fourth National Leaguer since 1901 to record at least three hits, three walks and five RBI in a game, and the first to do so since Sean Casey (CIN) on May 19, 1999 at Colorado.
- Played in his 300th career game on September 12, 2020 at Washington...Had 78 home runs and 58 stolen bases at the time of the game.
  - He's the only player in major-league history to reach 75 home runs and 50 stolen bases by his 300th career game.
- In his first full major-league season, 2019, hit a team-high 41 home runs and led the National League with 37 stolen bases.
  - Playing the season at age-21, became just the third player in MLB history to hit 40 home runs in a single-season prior to his 22nd birthday, joining two Hall of Famers in Eddie Mathews, who hit 47 in 1953 as a 21-year-old, and Mel Ott, who had 42 as a 20-year-old in 1929.
  - Only Ott was younger at the time of his 40th...Acuña Jr. was 21 years, 275 days when he hit his 40th on September 19 against Philadelphia, while Mathews hit his when he was 21 years, 316 days.
  - Acuña Jr. was the 12th Braves player (23rd overall) to hit 40 homers in a season.
- Became the second player in MLB history with at least 30 home runs and 30 stolen bases in a season prior to his 22nd birthday.
  - The only other player to do so was Los Angeles-AL's Mike Trout, who had 30 home runs and 49 stolen bases as a 20-year-old in 2012.
  - Only three other Braves have gone 30/30 at any age (Ron Gant, 1990 and 1991; Dale Murphy, 1983; Hank Aaron, 1963).

- Became the 11th player in Braves history with at least 20 home runs and 20 stolen bases in a season, and the first since 2012, when OF Jason Heyward had 27 homers and 21 steals.
  - Also had 26 home runs and 16 stolen bases in 2018...He was the sixth player in baseball history, and the first since Los Angeles-AL's Mike Trout in 2012 and 2013, with two 20-homer/15-steal seasons prior to his 22nd birthday.
- Began the 2019 season primarily hitting out of the No. 4 spot...Permanently moved to the leadoff spot on May 10, where he hit out of the rest of the season and all of 2020.
  - Hit 34 home runs and recorded 78 RBI from the spot of the lineup in 2019, establishing franchise single-season records – which he has since surpassed.
  - Hit eight leadoff home runs; establishing the single-season franchise record, passing the previous mark of seven, set by Marquis Grissom in 1996...Had seven the year prior, 2018, the second most in the NL that season behind Los Angeles' Joc Pederson (9).
  - Playing those seasons at ages 20 and 21, his 15 leadoff homers between the seasons were 10 more than any other player in history before turning 22...Los Angeles-AL's Mike Trout had five.
- Selected to his first career All-Star Game in 2019 and started in center field for the National League.
  - He was 21 years, 203 days old on the day of the game, making him the youngest Braves player to start an All-Star Game and the third youngest player in franchise history to earn a selection (Hank Aaron in 1955 and Ozzie Albies in 2018).
  - Participated in the T-Mobile Home Run Derby that week...Defeated Pittsburgh's Josh Bell in the first round, hitting 25 home runs to Bell's 18...Lost in the second round to eventual champion Pete Alonso... The first baseman hit 20 home runs, while Acuña Jr. hit 19.
- Won his first Silver Slugger Award in 2019 – his age-21 season.
  - Since the award was first presented in 1980, he became one of three National Leaguers to earn the honors in their age-21 season-or-younger, joining St. Louis' third baseman Albert Pujols (2001, age-21) and Los Angeles' pitcher Fernando Valenzuela (1981, age-20).
  - Teammate Ozzie Albies, 22, also received a Silver Slugger in 2019...Acuña Jr. and Albies were the first teammates age-22 or younger to win Silver Slugger Awards in the same season.
- He's one of 18 players in the modern era with two 20-homer seasons before his 22nd birthday
  - Of the 17 prior, seven hit 500 home runs (Mel Ott, Ted Williams, Mickey Mantle, Eddie Mathews, Frank Robinson, Ken Griffey Jr. and Álex Rodríguez), while eight are in the National Baseball Hall of Fame (Ott, Williams, Mantle, Mathews, Robinson, Griffey Jr., Al Kaline and Orlando Cepeda).
- Hit his 50th career home run, July 21, 2019 vs. WAS.
  - He was 21 years, 215 days old at the time of the homer; the fourth-youngest player in baseball history to reach that milestone.
  - The three younger were Mel Ott, Tony Conigliaro and fellow Braves outfielder Andruw Jones.
- Hit his 60th career home run on August 13, 2019, becoming the sixth player in baseball history to hit that many home runs prior to turning 22.
  - Joined Mel Ott (86), Tony Conigliaro (84), Eddie Mathews (72), Frank Robinson (60) and Ken Griffey Jr. (60).
- He's the only player in MLB history to have two home run streaks of at least four games before his 22nd birthday.
  - He first did so in five straight, from August 11-14, 2018, to tie the franchise modern-era record for most consecutive games with a homer...He also did so from August 6-9, 2019, when he homered in four straight.
- Named the 2018 NL Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year...Earned 27-of-30 first-place votes.
  - Became the eighth Brave to win the award – which was first presented in 1947; and to both leagues beginning in 1949, following Alvin Dark (1948), Samuel Jethroe (1950), Earl Williams (1971), Bob Horner (1978), David Justice (1990), Rafael Furcal (2000) and Craig Kimbrel (2011).
  - Michael Harris II and Drake Baldwin have since become the ninth and tenth players in franchise history to earn the honors (2022, '25).
- Became the fifth player in baseball history to reach 26 homers in a season prior to his 21st birthday.
  - Joined Hall of Famers Mel Ott (42 in 1929), Frank Robinson (34 in 1956), Tony Conigliaro (32 in 1965) and Hall of Famer Al Kaline (27 in 1955).

- Hit a leadoff homer in three straight games, all against Miami in August 2018...Brady Anderson, four straight (April 18-21, 1996) is the only other player such a streak of as many games.
  - Acuña Jr.'s streak ended on August 15, after he was hit with the first pitch by the Marlins' José Ureña.
  - The streak began on August 13, when he hit leadoff homers in both ends of a doubleheader...He is only the fourth player in history to accomplish that, including the first in the National League... The others to do so were Anderson and Hall of Famers Rickey Henderson (1993) and Harry Hooper (1913).
- Named the NL Rookie of the Month in August 2018, after becoming the first NL rookie over the previous 110 seasons to collect at least 39 hits and 11 home runs in a calendar month...Hit .336/.405/.698 (39-for-116) with 11 home runs, 21 RBI and six stolen bases in 30 games.

Longest Hitting Streak
15 games, 8/22-9/9/22

- From August 9-16, logged multiple hits in eight consecutive games.
  - It stood as the longest streak in the majors in 2025 and tied for the longest in modern-era franchise history (since 1900).
  - Chris Johnson (2013), Henry Aaron (1959), George Sisler (1928) and Walter Barbare (1921) each had eight-game streaks for the Braves.

- Became the first player league-wide, 24-or-younger, to fashion such a streak since Lourdes Gurriel Jr. (TOR) did it in 11 straight games in 2018.
- Regardless of age, the last player to string together eight straight multi-hit games was Jonathan India, who did it for the Cincinnati Reds in June of 2024.

- From July 22 through the rest of the season, logged 25 multi-hit games...That total tied with Washington's Daylen Lile, Chicago-NL's Nico Hoerner and Seattle's Julio Rodríguez for the most in Major League Baseball.
- Drew just 16 walks, the fewest among MLB qualifiers.
- Became the first player in franchise history to appear in at least 160 game and draw 16-or-fewer walks.
  - Before this season, the fewest walks drawn by a 160-game player was 23, done by Jeff Francoeur in 2006.
  - League-wide, the last player to appear in at least 160 games and draw 16-or-fewer walks was Kansas City's Alcides Escobar, who appeared in all 162 games and drew 15 walks in 2017.
- Finished as one of seven qualified batters with a higher home run (3.1%) rate than walk rate (2.5%), and one of two in the National League.
  - The last Brave to do so in a full season was Jeff Francoeur in 2006.
- On September 23, logged his sixth career multi-home run game, and his first in over a year...The outfielder last had one on September 19, 2024 at Cincinnati.
  - Became one of nine Braves in franchise history with at least six multi-homer games before turning 25...He joined Eddie Mathews (19), Bob Horner (17), Andruw Jones (13), Ronald Acuña Jr. (9), Henry Aaron (8), Earl Williams (7), Ozzie Albies (7), Dale Murphy (6) and Jeff Francoeur (6).
- Manufactured his season-high hitting streak, 12 games long, from August 8-18.
  - Stands tied for the second-longest of his career, only trailing his 15-game streak from August 22-September 9, 2022.
- From August 9 through the remainder of the season, tied for fifth in Major League Baseball with 35 RBI.

MAJOR LEAGUE NOTES

- Awards: Jackie Robinson NL Rookie of the Year (2022), Baseball America Major League All-Rookie Team (2022), NL Rookie of the Month (3x, June 2022, August 2022, September 2022), NL Player of the Week (2x, 6/18/23, 7/27/25).
- During the 2024 season, he was one of 17 players across the majors to rate as a "five-tool player" – above average in batting average (.264), AVG exit velocity (90.5 mph), Statcast sprint speed (28.3 ft./sec), FanGraphs fielding value (8) and Statcast arm strength (88.4 mph).
- Notched three hits, March 29, 2024 at Philadelphia.
  - At 23-years, 22 days old, he's the fourth-youngest player in the franchise's modern era (since 1900) to record at least three hits in the club's season opener, following Del Crandell in 1950 (20 years, 44 days), Rod Gilbreath in 1973 (20 years, 194 days) and Rabbit Maranville in 1913 (21 years, 150 days).
- Playing the fourth year of an eight-year, $72 million extension (2023-30) he signed on August 16, 2022.
  - The deal includes club options for 2031 ($15M, $5M buyout) and 2032 ($20M).
  - Selected by Atlanta in the third round of the 2019 MLB First-Year Player Draft from Stockbridge HS (Stockbridge, Ga.).
- Capped off his second consecutive three-hit game by hitting a solo home run, March 30, 2024 at Philadelphia; his first of the season.
  - The duo of Harris II and Orlando Arcia became the third grouping of teammates in baseball's modern era (since 1900) to collect at least three hits in each of the club's first two games to begin a season, along with Joe Jackson, Swede Risberg and Buck Weaver of the 1919 Chicago White Sox and Homer Summa and Bill Wambsganss of the 1923 Cleveland Indians.
  - He's one of five players in franchise's modern era (since 1900) with at least three hits in each of the club's first two games to begin a season, alongside Wally Berger (1931), Nanny Fernandez (1942), Ken Oberkfell (1987) and Orlando Arcia (2024).

- Went 5-for-5 with a three-run home run and a double, June 18, 2023 vs. Colorado.
  - Marked his second game with at least four hits over a six-game span, (also June 14 at Detroit), matching his number of four-hit efforts over the first 158 games of his career...Per Statcast, his blast traveled 453 feet, the longest of his career at the time.
  - Became the first Brave to record at least five hits in a game, without making an out, since Nick Markakis, April 4, 2019 versus Chicago-NL.
  - At 22 years, 103 days-old, he became the sixth-youngest player in the franchise's modern era (since 1900) to record at least five hits within a single-game and the youngest since Andruw Jones (21 years-360 days) on April 18, 1999 at Colorado.
- Named National League Player of the Week for the period ending June 18, 2023, the first such honor of his career.
  - Hit .556 (15-for-27); highest among qualifiers over that span, with three home runs, two doubles, nine RBI, eight runs and two stolen bases, posting an OPS of 1.499.
- Went 3-for-3 or better, three times over a 12-game span, from June 14-26.
  - In the modern era (since 1900), the only other player age 22-or-younger to have three such efforts in a span of 12 games is Hall of Famer Ted Williams in 1939.
- Went 4-for-5 with a stolen base, August 18 vs. San Francisco, marking the fifth four-hit game of his career and third of the 2023 season.
  - His five four-hit games were the most by a Brave through the first 213 games of their career since Chipper Jones tallied eight over the 1995-96 seasons.

POSTSEASON

- He's slashed .171/.171/.286 (6-for-35), with one home run, one double, three RBI, two runs and one stolen base in 10 career postseason games across three series, all with Atlanta (2022-24).
- Sealed a win for Atlanta in 2023 NLDS Game 2, tracking down a fly ball hit 392 feet into the right-center field gap by Philadelphia's Nicholas Castellanos.
  - Per Statcast, Harris II covered more than 30 yards to not only make a leaping grab against the wall (50% catch probability), but also double off Bryce Harper at first base for the game's final out, preserving a 5-4 victory.
- Totaled five hits during the 2024 NLWC Series at San Diego (5-8, .625)...Entered the series (1-27, .037) across two series in his postseason career.
  - Logged Atlanta's lone multi-hit effort in Game 1 (2-for-4).
- Led off Game 2 with a double...Singled in the sixth inning and hit a two-run home run in the eighth, the first of his postseason career, off RHP Jason Adam.
  - Became the fourth leadoff batter to homer as a part of a three-hit postseason game and the first to do so on the road, following Bill Bruton (1958 WS Game 2 vs. NYY), Rafael Furcal (2004 NLDS Game 2 vs. HOU) and Ronald Acuña Jr. (2019 NLDS Game 1 vs. STL).
  - He's also the first Braves' leadoff man with consecutive multi-hit games the postseason since Gerald Williams, three straight (1999 NLDS Game 3-4 at HOU and NLCS Game 1 vs. NYM.)
- Among rookies with at least 300 plate appearances in 2022, ranked highly in multiple categories: slugging percentage (1st, .514), OPS (2nd, 853), batting average (2nd, .297), RBI (4th, 64), runs (4th, 75), stolen bases (4th, 20), home runs (T4th, 19) and on-base percentage (6th, .339).
- Hit. 383 (36-for-94) with runners in scoring position during his rookie campaign was the third-highest in MLB (min. 400 PA) behind Freddie Freeman (LAD, .391) and Joc Pederson (SF, .388).
  - The last rookie to match Harris' .383 batting average with RISP (min. 400 PA) was Oakland's Jemile Weeks, who hit .395 (32-for-81) in those situations in 2011.
  - Last NL rookie was Todd Helton (COL), who hit .386 (51-for-132) with RISP during the '98 season.
- As a rookie, in "Late & Close" situations, Harris hit .406/.449/.719 (26-for-64) with five doubles, five home runs, 13 RBI and a 1.168 OPS.
  - Harris is only the sixth player, 21-or-younger, in modern MLB history (since 1901) to bat above .400 in late & close situations (min. 400 PA), and the first since Hall of Famer Ted Simmons (STL) hit .410 in such situations in 1971.

- Posted a 4.8 fWAR in 2022, the second-highest by a Braves rookie hitter in modern franchise history at the time...Rico Carty accumulated 4.9 fWAR in his rookie 1964 season.
  - On the pitching side, Irv Young (5.6 fWAR, 1905) and Spencer Strider (4.8 fWAR, 2022) have also reached Harris' mark...Hit .489 (22-for-45) on the first pitch in his first season, good for second in the NL and sixth in MLB among all players (min. 400 PA)...Riley Greene (DET, .500) was the only rookie ahead of him.
  - The last Brave to eclipse .489 on the first pitch (min. 400 PA) was Freddie Freeman, who hit .494 on the initial offering in 2016.
- Began the 2022 season with Double-A Mississippi before making his MLB debut on May 28, 2022.

  - Became the first player in the franchise's modern era (since 1900) to log 10 extra-base hits and six home runs over any non-overlapping seven-game span.
- Went 2-for-5 with two home runs and a career-high six RBI, July 27, 2021, at New York-NL.
  - Became the first Braves third baseman with two home runs and six RBI in a single game since Earl Williams, June 13, 1971, at Houston.
- On September 21, 2021, at Arizona, he became the 10th Brave age 24-or-younger to hit 30 home runs in a season and the first since Ronald Acuña Jr. (2019).
- Of his 27 RBI in 2021, 15 came with two outs.
- Doubled and homered as part of a 10-run second inning, August 30, 2020, at Philadelphia.
  - Became the first Brave with multiple extra-base hits in a single frame since Jeff Blauser, June 22, 1997, at Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium.
- Cleared the bases with a three-run triple, August 31, 2021, at Boston.
  - Marked the second triple of his career and the first by a Brave in a bases loaded situation since Mallex Smith, May 30, 2016, vs. San Francisco.
- Slashed .281/.328/.632 (16-for-57) off breaking pitches in 2020 (sliders and curveballs).
  - In 2019, his rookie season, he hit .195 against breaking pitches and struck out in 38 of his 86 plate appearances (41.9%).
- Scored a career-high five runs in a 29-9 win over Miami, September 9, 2020, at Truist Park.
  - In the Atlanta era (since 1966), he became the sixth Brave to score at least five runs in a game...Adam Duvall and Dansby Swanson each did so in the same contest.
- Made his major league debut, May 15, 2019, vs. St. Louis...Started in left field, batting sixth (1-for-3, solo home run).
  - At the time of his major-league debut, was ranked by Baseball America as the No. 1 prospect in the organization.
  - After striking out swinging in his first career plate appearance against St. Louis' Michael Wacha, he tagged the right-hander for a solo home run to lead off the bottom of the fourth inning.
  - In the Atlanta era (since 1966), became the eighth Brave to homer in his MLB debut and first since Evan Gattis, April 3, 2013, vs. Philadelphia, off Hall of Famer RHP Roy Halladay.

- Hit his first career grand slam in the 14th game of his big-league career, May 29, 2019, vs. Washington, off RHP Kyle McGowin.
  - Became the second Brave in the Atlanta era (since 1966) to hit a grand slam within his first 14 career games, joining Marcus Giles (2005).
- Hit his 10th career home run (solo) in his 26th game, June 12, 2019, vs. Pittsburgh, off RHP Kyle Crick...Also hit the ninth home run (three-run) of his career off Crick, June 4, at Pittsburgh.
  - Became the fastest player, by games played, in the franchise's modern era (since 1900) to reach double-digit home runs, surpassing the previous mark held by Wally Berger (29, 1930).
- He's also the fastest player, by games played, in the franchise's modern era (since 1900) to five career home runs, doing so in his ninth game, May 23, 2019, at San Francisco, off LHP Tony Watson (two-run).
  - At the time, only eight other major leaguers had hit at least five homers in their first nine games.
  - The only other 22-year-old to accomplish the feat was Toronto's Carlos Delgado (1993-94).
- Recorded his 25th RBI in his 18th career game, June 4, 2019, at Pittsburgh.
  - Since RBI became official in 1920, he was the second-fastest major leaguer, by games played, to reach 25 RBI –shy of Mandy Brooks (17 games, 1925).
- Hit 16 home runs in 49 games prior to the 2019 All-Star break.
  - Matched Ryan Klesko (1994) for the most home runs by a Braves rookie prior to the All-Star break since the game's inception in 1933.

POSTSEASON

- He's slashed .232/.373/.373 (33-for-142), with five home runs, five doubles, 16 RBI and 13 runs in 36 career postseason games across eight series, all with Atlanta (2020-23).
  - Was not included on the club's postseason roster in 2024 (fractured right hand).
  - Hit safely in all four games of the 2023 NLDS vs. Philadelphia (.353, 6-for-17); including a pair of multi-hit efforts (Games 3-4).
  - Paced the club in hits (six), home runs (two) and RBI (five).
  - Hit a go-ahead, two-run home run in the eighth inning of 2023 NLDS Game 2, off Philadelphia's RHP Jeff Hoffman.
  - Marked the 12th go-ahead home run in the eighth inning or later in Braves postseason history; the second by Riley, also: 2020 NLCS Game 1 at Los Angeles-NL.
  - Prior to Riley in 2023, Michael Tucker (1998 NLCS Game 5 at San Diego) and Eric Hinske (2010 NLDS Game 3 vs. San Francisco) were the only instances, under the same criteria, in which the team was trailing.
- Homered in three consecutive postseason series: 2020 NLCS Game 1 at LAD, 2021 NLDS Game 2 at MIL and 2021 NLCS Game 1 vs. LAD.
  - David Justice set the franchise record by hitting at least one home run in four straight postseason series covering the 1991 NLCS and World Series and the 1992 NLCS and World Series.
  - Javy López and Fred McGriff have since tied Justice.
- In the 2021 World Series, he hit .320 (8-for-25), with three doubles, three RBI and one run.
- Went 3-for-4, with a double in World Series Game 5 vs. Houston.
  - Since 2002, only three other Braves of equal age or younger than Riley, 24, have booked a three-hit game in the postseason (Ronald Acuña Jr., 2019-20; Ozzie Albies, 2020; Freddie Freeman, 2012).

2025 STARTING PITCHER STATS

The Braves used a franchise-record 19 starting pitchers last year after using just 13 different starters in 2024...Five of those 19, however, registered just a single start for the club, while 11 of the 19 made no more than four...Overall in 2025, the starters went 45-60 (.429) on the season...They tossed 866.0 innings, the third most in the National League and seventh-most in baseball, while their 4.48 ERA (431 ER) ranked 22nd.

Five different starters - Scott Blewett, Austin Cox, Reynaldo López, Charlie Morton and José Suarez - started exactly one game for the Braves this year...Those five pitchers tied the Baltimore Orioles for the most single-game starters in baseball this year.

Atlanta tossed just one complete game this season, as Spencer Schwellenbach went the distance in a win over the Milwaukee Brewers on June 11...It was the first complete game of his career, and the first by a Braves pitcher other than Max Fried since Bryce Elder did so in September of 2022.

Chris Sale finished his 15th major league season, second with Atlanta, going 7-5 with a 2.58 ERA (36 ER/125.2 IP) and 165 strikeouts in 20 starts and one relief appearance...His 11.82 strikeouts per nine innings led the National League while his 2.58 ERA was the third lowest in the NL among hurlers with at least 20 starts...He finished the season with a career rate of 11.13 strikeouts per nine innings pitched and a 5.29 strikeouts to base on balls ratio, both the highest marks in baseball history among pitchers with at least 2,000.0 innings pitched.

  - The previous mark of 276 was set by Hall of Famer John Smoltz during his Cy Young Award-winning season in 1996... Smoltz ('96) is the only other Braves pitcher in the Atlanta era (since 1966) to lead the majors in strikeouts.
  - His 186.2 innings pitched were the fewest by any pitcher to lead the majors in strikeouts, over a full season, in MLB history...Hall of Famer Randy Johnson paced the majors with 204 punch-outs in 172.0 innings in the strike-shortened season in 1994, while Cleveland's Shane Bieber did the same, fanning 122 over 77.1 frames in the truncated 2020 campaign (COVID-19).
  - Strider had 11 double-digit strikeout efforts in 2023; only Hall of Famer John Smoltz (12) has more in a single season in franchise history.
- Strider's 433 strikeouts through his first 50 starts are the most in modern baseball history (since 1901).
  - Cy Young Award-winner Dwight Gooden ranks second with 418.
  - His 17 games with at least 10 strikeouts are the second most in MLB history (1901) through a player's first 50 starts; trails only Dwight Gooden (20).
  - Strider joined Gooden as the only pitchers in the modern era to reach 300 strikeouts in their first 35 career starts.
- He became just the eighth Braves pitcher to win 20 games in a season since the club moved to Atlanta in 1966.
  - Earned his 20th win of the season on September 30, 2023.
  - Became the first Braves pitcher to lead the NL outright in wins since Kyle Wright in 2022.
  - Strider had three more wins on the season than any other pitcher in baseball... Arizona's Zac Gallen finished second with 17.
  - Pitchers Wright ('22), Russ Ortiz ('03), Tom Glavine ('91, '92, '93, '98, '00), Phil Niekro ('69, '74, '79), John Smoltz ('96), Ortiz ('03), Greg Maddux ('93) and Denny Neagle ('97) all reached the mark for the franchise in Atlanta.
  - Became the youngest Braves pitcher with at least 20 wins, within a single season, since Tony Cloninger, who also did so in his age-24 season in 1965 with Milwaukee.
- Atlanta went 26-6 in Strider's starts in his second major league season...It was the most team wins in a start by one pitcher in 2023.
  - The 26 wins by the Braves during Strider's starts were tied for the third most in Atlanta-franchise history in a single season...Atlanta won 28 games in 1993 with Steve Avery on the mound...Hall of Famers Tom Glavine (27, '93) and John Smoltz (26, '96) rank second and tied for third respectively.
- Strider went 12-2 with a 3.36 ERA in 16 starts away from Truist Park in 2023.
  - Strider's 12 wins away from Truist Park are tied for the third most in Braves franchise history in a single season and were the most since Tom Glavine also won 12 games on the road in 1998.
  - Joined Hall of Famers Glavine, Greg Maddux and Phil Niekro as the only Atlanta-era pitchers with as many road victories in a year.

- His 12 wins away from home in 2023 were easily most in the majors...No other pitcher reached the double-digit mark.

- On August 18, 2023, Strider recorded his fourth career game with at least 10 strikeouts while holding his opponent to one hit or less; the most such games by a pitcher before turning 25 since the mound was set at its current distance in 1893 (credit ESPN Stats).
- Strider struck out Shohei Ohtani on August 1, 2023, for his 200th strikeout of the season.
  - Broke his own record from 2022 – becoming the fastest pitcher, by innings pitched (123.1), to reach the 200-strikeout plateau within a single season since the mound moved to its current distance.
  - In 2022, he recorded 200 strikeouts in 130.0 innings...Prior to his feat, Hall of Famer LHP Randy Johnson held the record, reaching 200 strikeouts in 130.2 innings in 2001.
  - Strider is the fifth pitcher since 1893 to collect at least 200 strikeouts in his first two full major league seasons, joining: Cleveland's Herb Score (1955-56), New York-NL's Dwight Gooden (1984-85), Los Angeles-NL's Hideo Nomo (1995-96) and Texas' Yu Darvish (2012-13).
  - He's the fourth Braves pitcher, over the same span, with multiple 200-strikeout seasons, alongside teammate Charlie Morton (2021-22) and Hall of Famers John Smoltz, (5 times, 1992-93, '96-97, '06) and Phil Niekro, (three times, 1977-79).
- Strider's 354 strikeouts through his first 40 career starts are the most by any pitcher since the mound was set to its current distance in 1893.
- Struck out Nick Castellanos in the fourth inning on May 28, 2023, to become the fastest starting pitcher, by innings pitched (61.0), to reach 100 strikeouts in a season, since 1893...Strider bested his own franchise record, set in 2022 in 64.2 innings. (Research courtesy of Elias)
- In 2022, became the third rookie in franchise history to strike out 200 in a season, and the first in the modern era...The other rookies to reach 200 strikeouts were RHP Kid Nichols, who struck out 222 in 1890, and Bill Stemmyer, who fanned 239 in 1886...Just 16 rookies have done so in modern history, with Yu Darvish being the last to do so (221 strikeouts in 2012).
  - His 13.8 strikeouts-per-9.0 innings is the highest by a rookie pitcher in MLB history (min. 12 starts)...Chicago's Kerry Wood held the previous mark with 12.6 K/9.0 IP.
  - No pitcher in Braves franchise history has pitched at least 100 innings in a season and fanned even 11.0 batters per 9.0 innings...Two pitchers, Brandon Beachy with 10.7 in 2011, and Charlie Morton with 10.5 in 2021, have been above 10.0.
- Transitioned from the bullpen to the starting rotation on May 30, 2022, at Arizona.
- Has gone 30-9 with a 3.56 ERA in 54 starts since becoming a starter.
- Together with teammate Charlie Morton in 2022, became the first pair of Braves teammates to reach 200 strikeouts in a season since 1886, when Old Hoss Radbourn (218) and Bill Stemmyer (239) both reached the mark... Radbourn tossed 509.1 innings that year, while Stemmyer totaled 348.2 innings.
- Started on September 1, 2022, vs. Colorado and pitched a career-high 8.0 innings, holding the Rockies to just two hits and no runs in the effort.
- Set the single-game, Atlanta-era record with 16 strikeouts in a game on September 1, 2022, which also ranks second in all-time franchise history...John Smoltz previously held the Atlanta-era record, punching out 15 on two occasions: May 24, 1992, at Montreal, and April 10, 2005, versus the New York Mets...Warren Spahn holds the all-time Braves record with 18 punchouts on June 14, 1952, versus the Chicago Cubs.
  - Strider's 16 strikeouts are the most in a single game by a Braves rookie in franchise history.
  - He became the fourth different rookie in the modern era to strike out at least 16 batters in a game without issuing a walk... Dwight Gooden had exactly 16 K's in two consecutive starts in 1984 (9/12 vs. PIT, 9/17 at PHI)...Kerry Wood struck out 20 against Houston on May 6, 1998, and Jon Gray fanned 16 Padres on September 17, 2016.
  - Research courtesy Elias.
- On July 7, 2022, vs. St. Louis, struck out a then career-high 12 batters...Recorded his first nine outs via strikeout.
  - Since at least 1961, Strider is the only Braves pitcher with nine strikeouts through the first three innings of a game.
  - He became the only pitcher in Braves history to have three games of at least 10 strikeouts within his first eight starts...League-wide, the last pitcher with at least three double-digit strikeout performances in his first eight career starts was Masahiro Tanaka, who did it for New York-AL in 2014.

- Research via the Elias Sports Bureau.
- He allowed one hit and fanned 11 in his previous start at Cincinnati, becoming the first rookie in MLB's modern era (since 1900) with 11-plus strikeouts and two-or-fewer hits in consecutive starts.

- In his 2022 campaign, became the first Atlanta rookie to win 10 games in a season since Julio Teheran went 14-8 in 2013.
- Made his major-league debut on October 1, 2021, allowing two hits and a solo home run.
  - Pitched 1.1 scoreless innings in relief on October 3.

2025 YEAR-END NOTES

THE YEAR THAT WAS: The Braves played to a 76-86 (.469) record in 2025, working to a fourth-place finish in the National League East...The year snapped the club's string of seven consecutive postseason appearances and stood as Atlanta's first losing season since 2017.

- From 2018 through 2024, during Atlanta's winning run, the club's 604-427 (.586) record was third best in all of baseball...Only Los Angeles-NL (656-377, .635) and Houston (618-413, .599) had a better winning percentage in that span.
- The stretch from 2018 through 2024 was the franchise's second-longest period of sustained success since moving to Atlanta in 1966, trailing just 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 through 2005.
- The only other National League team to make the postseason in each season between 2018 & 2024 was Los Angeles, while Houston was the only such club in the AL...Both the Braves and Astros failed to qualify for the postseason last year.
- Atlanta had not finished as low in the NL East since a fifth-place campaign in 2016...Dating to Atlanta's debut in the NL East in 1994, the club has finished fourth or lower just four times in 32 total seasons - 4th in 2008, 4th in 2015 & 5th in 2016 prior to last year.

ROSTER: Charlie Morton became the 71st different player to appear for the Braves in a game last season when he started the season finale, a new single-season record in Major League Baseball history.

- Two other clubs - Miami in 2024 and Baltimore last season - used 70.
- Atlanta used 27 different position players and 46 unique pitchers on the season...Vidal Bruján and Luke Williams appeared in both capacities for the club.
- The 46 pitchers and 19 different starting starters both easily set new franchise records in a single season for the club...The 46 total pitchers used were nine more than any other season in franchise history, passing the 37 employed in 2015...The 19 starters were three more than the 16 used by any other Braves team, done five times previously and last in 2025.
- Atlanta's 19 unique starters were the most by any team in baseball last season, while the 46 pitchers tied the total used by the New York Mets.

- Snitker and the club announced following the season that the long-time manager will transition to an advisory role within the organization for the 2026 season, and will be inducted into the Atlanta Braves Hall of Fame prior to a game last year.
- Snitker, 69, guided the Braves to 811 wins, six NL East division crowns and seven postseason berths over parts of 10 seasons in his managerial tenure, and led the club to the fourth World Series title in franchise history in 2021...He was a four-time finalist for NL Manager of the Year in his nine full seasons at the helm and won the award in 2018.
- He compiled an 811-668 (.548) record at the major league level, and his 811 total wins trail just Hall of Famers Bobby Cox (2,149) and Frank Selee (1,004) in franchise annals...Among the five managers in franchise history to skipper more than 1,000 games, Snitker's .548 winning percentage ranks third behind just Selee (.607) and Cox (.557)...Bill McKechnie (.457 over 1,235 games) and George Stallings (.492 over 1,201 games) both had records under .500.
- Since taking over for Atlanta on May 17, 2016, Snitker's 811 wins stand as second most for any manager in baseball...Only the Dodgers' Dave Roberts, with 924, has more...Just five teams in total have more wins than the Braves since Snitker took the helm - the Dodgers (924), Astros (875), Yankees (856), Guardians (825) and Brewers (820).
- He collected his 800th career victory on September 8 of the 2025 season, becoming the 86th manager in baseball history to win at least 800 games and just the 43rd to win at least 800 with a single team...Of those to win 800 with one team, Snitker is just the 12th in history to skipper no other clubs throughout his career.
- Snitker managed for 20 seasons in the minor leagues, compiling a 1,301-1,309 (.498) record, while five of his clubs advanced to postseason play...He was named Manager of the Year twice while in the minor leagues, winning the award in 1999 and 2000 with Single-A Myrtle Beach.
- Snitker is the only manager in franchise history to take the team to the postseason seven times in his first eight full seasons.

ALL-STAR GAME: Atlanta and Truist Park hosted the 95th Major League Baseball All-Star Game on July 15, 2025...The National League beat the American League, 7-6, in the first-ever extra-innings swing off.

- OF Ronald Acuña Jr. was selected by fans to start the game for the NL team in his home stadium, while 1B Matt Olson and LH Chris Sale also represented the home team...Olson also participated in the T-Mobile Home Run Derby, while Brian Snitker was invited to join manager Dave Roberts' coaching staff.
- Acuña Jr. singled in his first at-bat and came around to score in the bottom of the first inning... Olson went hitless in his only plate appearance, while Sale did not pitch following injury.
- Former Braves Andrés Galarraga, Andruw Jones, and Chipper Jones threw out the ceremonial first pitch prior to the start of the game, after all three played in the 71st All-Star Game hosted by the Braves in 2000.

AT HOME: The Braves went 39-42 (.481) at home last season, the seventh-lowest home winning percentage in the majors and fourth lowest in the National League...Only the Rockies (25-56, .309), Nationals (32-49, .395) and Marlins (38-43, .469) were worse in the NL...Last season marked just the second losing campaign at home in the history of Truist Park.

- Atlanta went 37-44 in the park's inaugural season in 2017.
- Since that 2017 season, Atlanta's 383 wins at home are ninth most in baseball and fifth most in the National League behind just the Dodgers (454), Phillies (404), Brewers (400) and Cubs (384).
- Atlanta went 14-6 (.700) through its first 20 home games through May 13, and lost back-to-back home games just once in that span...From May 14 through the end of the season, the Braves went 25-36 (.500) in their home park.
- The Braves lost five consecutive home games from July 22 through August 6, tying the longest home losing streak in Truist Park history.

ON THE ROAD: The Braves went 37-44 (.457) away from Truist Park last season, and their .457 winning percentage in such games ranked tied for 18th in the majors.

- Atlanta went 0-8 to open its road slate last year, tied for the longest road losing streak to begin a run in modern-era franchise history...The 1980 Braves also went 0-8 away from Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium to open the year.
- The club did, however, close the season with victories in each of its final eight games away from home, and its 17-8 (.680) road winning percentage from August 1 through the end of the season was the best in baseball.

VS. NL EAST: Atlanta played to a 30-22 (.577) record in intradivision games last season, eight games over .500 and a four-game improvement from its 2024 record...Only Philadelphia, with a 31-21 (.596) record, was better in intradivison games by an NL East club.

- The Braves won the season set against three of its four division opponents last year, going 9-4 against Washington and 8-5 against both New York and Miami...Atlanta played to a 5-8 record in its 13 games versus division-champion Philadelphia.
- New York went 25-27 (.481) against the NL East last season, while Miami (23-29, .442) and Washington (21-31, .404) rounded out the intradivision records.
- Losing the season series to Philadelphia last year snapped a four year streak of winning the season set between the clubs, and a five-year run of not losing the season set...The Braves went 5-5 (.500) against the Phillies in 2020, and won the set in '21, '22, '23 & '24 before last season.
- From 2018 to 2023, during the Braves run of consecutive NL East titles, the club went 247-149 (.624) against the NL East, 36 games better than any other team in the division... In the last two seasons, neither of which resulted in division titles, Atlanta is 58-46 (.558) within the division.

TOUGH START...: Atlanta dropped each of the seven games on its season-opening road trip to San Diego (0-4) and Los Angeles-NL (0-3)...It was the Braves' longest season-opening losing streak since dropping each of their first nine games in 2016.

- The Braves were the last team in baseball last year to win a game.
- Atlanta opened 0-7 for the fifth time in modern-era franchise history (since 1900), and for the fourth time since moving to Atlanta in 1966...The club opened a franchise-worst 0-10 in 1988.
- No team in baseball history has ever made the postseason after opening the year with seven consecutive losses, and that streak continued last year after Atlanta was officially eliminated from playoff contention on September 19.

...BUT QUICK REBOUND: After starting 0-7, Atlanta reached .500 for the first time last season after a win over Washington on May 13 evened its record at 21-21...The Braves reached .500 in game No. 42 after the slow start.

- Per Elias, just four previous teams in history had opened a year 0-7 and rebounded to reach .500 at all within the season, and only one had evened their record prior to their 42nd game of the season.
- The 1945 Boston Red Sox opened 0-7 before pulling to a 19-19 mark in game 38...The 1983 Houston Astros took 62 games (31-31) to reach .500, the 2008 Detroit Tigers needed 80 games (40-40), and the 1980 Braves reached .500 in their 126th game (63-63).
- Since the date of its first win, April 4, through reaching .500 on May 13, Atlanta's 21-14 (.600) record was fifth best in the majors and second best in the NL, behind just New York (25-12, .676).
- The Braves spent one single game last season above .500, after a win on May 18 at the Red Sox moved the club to 24-23...Atlanta promptly lost three straight games and six of its next seven to fall back below .500.

PITCHING: Atlanta's pitching staff compiled a 4.36 ERA (696 ER/1438.0 IP) on the year, the ninth-highest ERA in baseball...It came just one year removed from leading MLB with a 3.49 ERA in 2024.

- The Braves allowed 137 more earned runs in 2025 (696) than in 2024 (559), and 127 more total runs (734 in 2025, 607 in 2024)...Atlanta's +137 difference in earned runs allowed from 2024 to 2025 was second largest in all of baseball, behind just Washington's +161 (685 in 2024 to 846 in 2025).
- Since moving to Atlanta in 1966, the Braves' 4.36 ERA last year ranked 10th highest in 60 total seasons by the club...It was the highest for the team since compiling a 4.72 ERA in 2017.
- The Braves compiled 1,416 strikeouts last season, ninth most in the majors and fifth most in the National League...Atlanta combined to fan 137 fewer batters last season than its major-league best 1,553 punchouts last year.
- Braves starters ranked 22nd in the majors with a 4.48 ERA and ranked third with 861 strikeouts from the rotation, while the Atlanta bullpen ranked 21st with a 4.29 mark.

OFFENSE BEFORE THE BREAK: In 95 games prior to the All-Star break, the Atlanta offense combined to bat .243/.315/.388 with a .703 OPS that ranked 20th in all of baseball...The Braves hit 105 total homers before the break, and their 4.08 runs per game ranked 23rd in the majors.

- Michael Harris II compiled a .551 OPS that ranked last among all 155 qualified batters prior to the break, while Ozzie Albies' .606 OPS ranked 149th...Atlanta had just one qualified batter rank post a top-80 OPS in baseball prior to the break - Matt Olson ranked 36th with an .830 mark.
- With runners in scoring position, Atlanta hit just .241/.324/.378 before their break, and its 692 total runners left on base in that span ranked tied for fourth most in the majors...Only Seattle (703), New York-AL (699) and Philadelphia (696) stranded more.

OFFENSE AFTER THE BREAK: In 67 games following the break, Atlanta's offense batted .248/.327/.415 with a .743 OPS that ranked ninth in the majors...The Braves averaged 5.01 runs per game following the break, sixth most in the majors and nearly a full run more than their average in the first half.

- Atlanta drew 255 walks following the break, most in the NL and behind just New York-AL (266) in MLB...The Braves' on-base percentage was 12 points higher following the break than before.
- Michael Harris II posted an .845 OPS following the break than ranked 36th among qualified hitters in baseball and was .294 points better than his first-half mark, while Ozzie Albies compiled a .769 mark that was a .163-point improvement.

TOUGH OUTS: Atlanta made 42 outs on balls hit over 110 miles per hour, the highest total in baseball...Toronto, with 41, was the only other club with at least 40 such outs.

- Sixteen of Atlanta's 42 such outs were made by Michael Harris II, the second-highest single-player total in the majors...Matt Olson, with nine such outs, tied for 12th.

DEFENSE: Atlanta's defense committed just 54 errors in 162 games last season, fewest in the National League and more than just Texas (51) in all of baseball...The Braves ranked fifth in the majors with 45 defensive runs saved on the year.

- The 54 errors marked the fewest in a full, 162-game season in Atlanta franchise history (since 1966).
- Matt Olson led all first basemen and ranked sixth in baseball, regardless of position, with 17 defensive runs saved last season, while Nick Allen ranked fifth among shortstops and 21st in the majors with five.

AWARDS: Two Braves earned monthly awards last year, with C Drake Baldwin earning NL Rookie of the Month honors in May and closer RH Raisel Iglesias winning NL Reliever of the Month for August.

- Baldwin batted .389/.411/.593 with three homers and nine RBI in the month of May, and was the first Braves rookie to win the honor since Michael Harris II and Spencer Strider won four consecutive such honors from June through September in 2022.
- Iglesias converted all 10 save opportunities and pitched to a 0.69 ERA over 13 games in the month of August...He has now won the award in the month of August in three consecutive seasons with Atlanta, doing so first in 2023 and again in 2024.
- Three Braves were named NL Player of the Week last season - Ronald Acuna Jr. won the honor for the week of June 14, Michael Harris II did so for the week of July 26, and Matt Olson was the club's final winner for the week of September 20.

WINNING STREAK: Atlanta won 10 consecutive games from September 14 through September 23, its longest winning streak of the season and one of just eight streaks of at least 10 games across baseball last season.

- The Braves last compiled a winning streak of double-digit games in June of 2022, when they won 14 in a row...Their run last season stands as the 17th in modern-era franchise history of at least 10 games, and the 10th such run of the Atlanta era.
- Seven different teams combined to compile eight individual winning streaks of at least 10 games last season, with Milwaukee owning a season-best 14-game streak.
- Prior to their run, Atlanta had just seven other streaks of at least three games, none of which were more than five victories in a row.

OPENING DAY ROTATION: Each of the five starting pitchers that broke spring training with Atlanta spent extended time on the injured list last season...From July 27 through August 30, all five members of Atlanta's Opening Day rotation were on the 60-day IL.

- Chris Sale started Opening Day for the club, and would later miss from June 19 through August 30 with a fractured left ribcage...In his other 21 appearances, he went 7-5 with a 2.58 ERA and compiled a staff-best 3.9 bWAR.
- Reynaldo López pitched Game 2 for Atlanta and it was his only appearance of the season...He allowed three hits over 5.0 innings in his only start last season, after pitching to an 8-5 record with a 1.99 ERA and 5.1 bWAR over 26 games for Atlanta in 2024...He missed 156 games for the club with right shoulder inflammation.

- Spencer Schwellenbach pitched the third game of Atlanta's season, and went 7-4 with a 3.09 ERA over 17 starts for the club before missing the final 77 games of the season with a fractured right elbow...At the time of his injury, he led the majors with 110.2 innings pitched.
- AJ Smith-Shawver started Atlanta's final game of the opening series, and would later miss the club's final 107 games following Tommy John surgery...He entered the year ranked as the Braves' No. 3 prospect, and went 3-2 with a 3.86 ERA through nine starts before his injury.
- Grant Holmes was the fifth and final starter for Atlanta last season, and made 22 total appearances before suffering right elbow inflammation and missing the remainder of the season...He pitched to a 3.99 ERA and compiled 1.4 bWAR over his 21 total starts and 22 games.
- Sale (3.9), Schwellenbach (2.2) and Holmes (1.4) ranked 1-3 on Atlanta's pitching staff in bWAR and combined for 7.5 total bWAR, despite missing a combined 196 games.

CALIFORNIA: The Braves made three visits to the state of California last season, and went 1-12 while visiting the Padres (0-4), Dodgers (0-3), Giants (0-3) and A's (1-2) in the state.

- They lost each of their first 11 games in California last season, before winning the middle game of their series versus the Athletics...Per Elias, the 0-11 record in California last year matched the most single-season losses without a win in any single state in franchise history...The 1922 Boston Braves dropped all 11 away games to the Chicago Cubs in the state of Illinois.
- Atlanta lost 13 straight games overall in the state of California, spanning a two-game sweep in the 2024 Wild Card Series at Petco Park in San Diego through July 8 last year in Sacramento.
- Since the 2018 season, Atlanta is just 38-49 (.437) in 87 total games, regular and postseason, in California...In 1,153 games, regular and postseason, outside of California in that same span, Atlanta is 666-487... The Braves' .578 winning percentage in such games is fourth best in baseball.

ONE-RUN GAMES: Atlanta went 21-35 (.375) in one-run games last season, and just two teams in baseball played more one-run affairs...Pittsburgh played 60 such games, while San Francisco played 58.

- Atlanta's 35 one-run losses last season were tied for the second most in baseball, and the club's 21-35 (.375) record in such games is the lowest winning percentage in the NL...Only Minnesota (15-27, .375) and Chicago (15-36, .294) had a lower such record in the majors.
- The 35 one-run losses were the second most in a single-season in the franchise's modern era, fewer than just the 36 one-run defeats by the 1988 club.
- If Atlanta had played to just a .500 record in its 56 one-run games last season, the Braves' 83-79 (.512) record would have been good enough for the final NL Wild Card spot by virtue of tiebreaker.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR: Drake Baldwin entered the season tabbed by MLB.com as Atlanta's top overall prospect, and batted .274/.341/.469 with 18 doubles, 19 homers and 80 RBI over 124 total games in his rookie campaign...He made the club's Opening Day roster, and made his debut behind the plate in Atlanta's first game of the season.

- Baldwin was the first Braves position player to start his debut on Opening Day since Tyler Pastornicky opened at short in 2012, and the only to do so as catcher in Atlanta franchise history (since 1966)...The last Braves catcher to start on Opening Day in his major league debut was Ebba St. Claire on April 17, 1951, starting for the Boston Braves in a 4-0 loss to the New York Giants.
- Baldwin became just the seventh rookie in franchise history to plate 80 runs in his debut season, and the first since Chipper Jones in 1995...He also became just the seventh rookie catcher in history to reach the milestone, and the first since Geovany Soto in 2008.

- Among all 19 National League rookies with at least 200 plate appearances, Baldwin ranked first in RBI (80), second in homers (19) and total bases (190), and third in average (.274), slugging (.469), OPS (.810) and extra-base hits (39)... His 3.3 bWAR last season are also the most by any rookie in the National League, and trails just the Athletic's Nick Kurtz (5.2) among rookie batters in the majors.

- Dating to the 1947 season, when the first national Rookie of the Year award was presented by the BBWAA, Baldwin is just the sixth rookie to reach 39 extra-base hits and 80 RBI while playing over half his games behind the plate, and the first to do so since Geovany Soto in 2008... Of the first five such catchers to reach Baldwin's counting stats in their rookie seasons, four were named Rookie of the Year - Johnny Bench in 1968, Earl Williams in 1971, Mike Piazza in 1993 and Geovany Soto in 2008.

- Atlanta has had at least one major award winner in four of the last five seasons, dating to Freddie Freeman's MVP honors in 2020...Michael Harris II was named Rookie of the Year in 2022, Ronald Acuña Jr. won MVP in 2023, and Chris Sale won the Cy Young Award last year.

VS. LEFTIES: The Braves went 23-20 (.535) in games started by opposing left-handers last season, the second-best record in the National League...The Brewers, with a 29-18 (.617) mark, were the best team in baseball versus lefties and the only NL club better than the Braves.

- Since 2018, Atlanta's 187-125 (.599) record versus left-handers is third best in the majors, behind just the Astros (235-140, .627) and Dodgers (234-145, .617).

ATTENDANCE: Atlanta drew 2,903,167 fans at Truist Park last season, the fourth-highest total in the nine-year history of Truist Park...The Braves saw 3,129,931 fans in 2022, 3,191,505 in 2023, and 3,011,755 last year.

- The Braves sold out 30% of their home schedule in 2025, doing so in 24 of their 81 home games.

OVERALL PITCHING: The Braves allowed 734 runs last season, 11th most in Major League Baseball... They had a 4.36 team ERA, which was ninth highest...Opponents batted .247 (1,348-for-5,460) against Braves pitching, which ranked seventh highest in the National League and 11th in MLB... Atlanta pitchers struck out 1,416, the ninth most in the majors, while walking 530, 11th fewest... The club allowed 197 home runs in 2025, fifth most in the National League and 11th most in the majors.

	2024	2025

- The Braves allowed 137 more earned runs in 2025 (696) than in 2024 (559), and 127 more total runs (734 in 2025, 607 in 2024)...Atlanta's +137 difference in earned runs allowed from 2024 to 2025 was second largest in all of baseball, behind just Washington's +161 (685 in 2024 to 846 in 2025).

- Since moving to Atlanta in 1966, the Braves' 4.36 ERA last year ranked 10th highest in 60 total seasons by the club...It was the highest for the team since compiling a 4.72 ERA in 2017.

- Atlanta used eight rookie pitchers last season, including four -RH Didier Fuentes, LH Hayden Harris, RH Rolddy Muñoz and RH Nathan Wiles - that made their major league debuts... Those eight combined to pitched 166.0 innings and compile a 4.66 ERA, including 56.1 innings and a 2.88 ERA from Hurston Waldrep.
- Two of the four oldest pitchers in baseball last season appeared with Atlanta, as 41-year-olds Jesse Chavez and Charlie Morton combined to make five appearances for the club.

STARTERS: The Braves used a franchise-record 19 starting pitchers last year after using just 13 different starters last season...Five of those 19, however, registered just a single start for the club, while 11 of the 19 made no more than four...Overall in 2025, the starters went 45-60 (.429) on the season...They tossed 866.0 innings, the third most in the National League and seventh-most in baseball, while their 4.48 ERA (431 ER) ranked 22nd.

- RH Bryce Elder made a team-most 28 starts for the club after not being included on Atlanta's Opening Day roster...No other pitcher made more than 23 starts last season.
- Five different starters - Scott Blewett, Austin Cox, Reynaldo López, Charlie Morton and José Suarez - started exactly one game for the Braves last year...Those five pitchers tied the Baltimore Orioles for the most single-game starters in baseball last year.
- Atlanta tossed just one complete game last season, as Spencer Schwellenbach went the distance in a win over the Milwaukee Brewers on June 11...It was the first complete game of his career, and the first by a Braves pitcher other than Max Fried since Elder did so in September of 2022.

RELIEVERS: The Braves bullpen used 37 different pitchers in a relief capacity last season, 16 more than last season...Eighteen of those 37 made no more than three relief appearances for the club... Atlanta relievers went 31-26 with a 4.17 ERA (265 ER/572.0 IP) and converted 34-of-65 save opportunities.

- The Braves' 4.17 ERA in relief was ninth best in the National League and ranked 19th in baseball...Atlanta's relief ERA was its highest since the 2019 club compiled a 4.18 mark.
- Atlanta's relievers held their opposition to a .234 batting average on the year, the fourth-lowest mark in the NL...However, opponents hit .274 against them with runners in scoring position.
- The Braves' bullpen allowed 83 of 215 (38.6%) inherited runners to come around and score, and retired 365 of the 519 (70.3%) first batters they faced.
- Five Braves relievers - Aaron Bummer Dylan Lee, Raisel Iglesias, Pierce Johnson & Tyler Kinley - combined to make 273 appearances for Atlanta and compiled a 2.94 ERA...The other 32 pitchers to appear in relief for Atlanta last season pitched to a 5.30 ERA over 247 games.

SAVES: Atlanta relievers went 34-for-65 in save opportunities, the fourth fewest saves in baseball and second fewest in the NL...The Braves' 21 blown opportunities tied for eighth fewest in MLB... Just five different pitchers recorded saves for the club, after seven did so last year.

- Raisel Iglesias led the club with 29 saves, while Dylan Lee (2) was the only other pitcher with multiple saves last season...Pierce Johnson also had one, while Hunter Stratton and José Suarez each collected one 3.0-inning save.
- Iglesias converted each of his final 18 save opportunities dating to July 28, the longest active streak in the majors to close the season.
- Iglesias became the 40th pitcher in history, and fifth active, with 250 saves when he converted on September 16 vs. WSH..His 97 career saves with Atlanta rank fifth in franchise history.

WINS: Right-hander Bryce Elder led Atlanta's staff with eight wins last season, tied for 73rd in all of baseball...It marked the fewest victories for a Braves' wins leader in a non-shortened season since Buster Brown went 8-18 for the 1911 Boston Beaneaters.

- An Atlanta Brave had held at least a share of the MLB wins lead in each of the last three seasons... Kyle Wright (21, 2022) and Spencer Strider (20, 2023) were MLB's outright win leaders in those respective seasons, while Chris Sale (18, 2024) tied Tarik Skubal in 2024.
- Just three primary Braves' starters had a winning record last season...Chris Sale went 7-5 (.583) in 20 starts and 21 total games, Spencer Schwellenbach went 7-4 (.636) in 17 turns, and Hurston Waldrep was 6-1 (857) in 10 games, nine starts...Grant Holmes & Spencer Strider, who combined to make 44 starts for Atlanta last season, pitched to a record of just 11-23 (.333).

SLIDERS: The Atlanta pitching staff combined to throw 6,547 sliders last season, over 1,600 more than any other club in baseball...Seattle, with 4,899, ranked second...Braves' pitchers threw sliders with 27.3% of their total pitches.

- By Statcasts's Run Value, Atlanta pitchers owned four to the top 14 most valuable sliders in baseball last season...Chris Sale's slider carried a major league-best Run Value of 23, which ranked fourth in all of baseball regardless of pitch type, while Tyler Kinley (12) ranked seventh, Dylan Lee (10) ranked 13th and Grant Holmes (9) ranked 14th.
- Dylan Lee threw his slider 612 times, and has surrendered just 22 hits on it...Among pitchers that threw as many last season, those 22 hits were the fewest in the majors.

HOME RUNS: The Braves' pitching staff combined to allow 197 home runs on the season, 47 more than it did last year...Just 10 teams in baseball yielded more last year.

- Only one Braves team in franchise history has allowed more home run in a single season...The 2019 club yielded a franchise-record 203 homers.
- Bryce Elder allowed a career-high 24 homers last season while Spencer Strider yielded 20... They became the first pair of Braves rotation-mates to yield 20+ homers since Mike Foltynewicz (23), Julio Teheran (22) and Max Fried (21) did so in 2019.
- Atlanta allowed 78 home runs in relief, also the second most in a single season in franchise history...That 2019 team allowed 87 from the bullpen.
- One hundred six of Atlanta's 197 homers allowed last season came at Truist Park, the most by the club in the nine-year history of the stadium...Just one other season, 100 in 2023, had the club allowed triple-digit homers since the stadium opened in 2017.

BIG HOLES: Atlanta trailed by double-digit runs in six different games last season, its most such games since also doing so six times in 2021...Four of the six such games came over a three-week span from August 22 to September 12.

- Atlanta's largest margin of defeat was 16 runs, in an 18-2 loss to Seattle on September 7...The 18 runs marked the most the club has ever allowed in a game at Truist Park.
- The club's largest shut-out loss last season was a 13-0 defeat to Philadelphia on June 27.

OVERALL OFFENSE: The Atlanta offense combined to bat .245/.320/.399 over 162 games last season, with 190 home runs and 724 total runs...Atlanta drew 575 walks on the season and struck out 1,371 times.

- Atlanta ranked top-10 in the majors in walks (3rd, 575), caught stealings (T5th, 25) and singles (9th, 897).
- The club averaged 4.5 runs per game, 0.2 runs per game higher than last year's club that qualified for the postseason.

HOME RUNS: The Braves hit 190 home runs last season, it's lowest total over the course of a full season since 2018...That club tallied just 175 home runs.

- Regardless of the lower homer output, Atlanta ranks second in the National League and third in Major League Baseball in total home runs since 2019...The club (1,544) only trails the New York Yankees (1,606) and the Los Angeles Dodgers (1,572).
- Last year's homer total snapped a streak of finishing first or second in home runs among National League clubs in five consecutive seasons: 2020 (2nd, 103), 2021 (2nd, 239), 2022 (1st, 243), 2023 (1st, 307), 2024 (2nd, 213).
- Ten different Braves recorded at least 10 homers last season: Matt Olson (28), Marcell Ozuna (21), Ronald Acuña Jr. (20), Drake Baldwin (19), Michael Harris II (19), Ozzie Albies (16), Austin Riley (16), Sean Murphy (16), Jurickson Profar (14) and Eli White.
  - The Braves finished as one of just four teams in baseball with double-digit 10-homer players, joining the New York Yankees, Los Angeles Dodgers and Philadelphia Phillies who also have 10.
  - The Braves also had 10 such players in 2023, and had a franchise-record 11 players with at least 10 homers last year...No other team in baseball has done so in each of the last three years...However, just 26 different players have hit at least a single homer with Atlanta since the start of 2023, more than just Philadelphia (25) in the majors.
- The Braves were out-homered by their opponents last season (-7) for the first time since 2017, when they had a -27 home run differential...In 2023, the club had a +120, the highest within a single-season in MLB history.
- Through play on June 12, Atlanta had the fourth-fewest three-run home runs (4) in Major League Baseball, only more than the San Diego Padres (3), Colorado Rockies (2) and the Kansas City Royals (1).
  - From June 13 through the rest of the season, the Braves tied for third-most in Major League Baseball (19), and only trailed the Philadelphia Phillies (21) and Arizona Diamondbacks (20) in that regard.
  - The team finished with 23 three-run homers overall, tied for sixth-most in the NL.

BACK-TO-BACK: The Braves hit eight sets back-to-back home runs last season, tied for the eighth-most instances in the majors along with the Cleveland Guardians

- Matt Olson was involved in five back-to-back sequences last season, tied for the fourth most in Major League Baseball behind New York-AL's Aaron Judge (7), Seattle's Cal Raleigh (6) and Chicago-NL's Michael Busch (6).
  - Since Olson's first full major league season in 2018, he leads MLB by participating in 31 back-to-back sequences.
- Since 2019, the Braves lead the National League and rank second in Major League Baseball with 76 sets of back-to-back home runs...The New York Yankees (78) are the only club with more.

RUNNERS IN SCORING POSITION: Atlanta slashed .252/.344/.404 (335-for-1,328) with runners in scoring position...The club's batting average with runners in scoring position ranked 16th in the majors.

- In their 76 wins, the club slashed .312/.406/.526 (224-for-719) with runners in scoring position, compared to .182/.266/.259 (111-for-609) in its 86 losses.

EXTRA-BASE HITS: Matt Olson totaled 72 extra-base hits (29 home runs, 41 doubles and two triples), tied for fifth-most in the Senior Circuit.

- Olson's collected at least 60 extra-base hits in each of his seven full seasons in the majors... League-wide, he's the only player with at least 60 extra-base hits in each of the last seven full seasons (excl. 2020)...Over that span, his 446 extra-base hits are bested only by Cleveland's Jose Ramirez (537) and Los Angeles' (NL) Freddie Freeman (524).

BEFORE AND AFTER: The Braves played to a below-.500 record (42-53) before the All-Star Break, but an above-.500 record (34-33) after the intermission.

- Since the Braves moved to Atlanta in 1966, last season marks just the eighth time the club lost at least 50 games prior to the All-Star break, and the first such season since 2016.
- Dating to the 2018 season, when Atlanta's run of consecutive postseason appearances began, the Braves have played to a .559 winning percentage before the break and a .584 clip after... Only the Dodgers (.646), Astros (.595) and Brewers (.593) have won a higher percentage of their post-break games than the Braves in that span.

	Pre-ASG	Post-ASG
Batting Average:	.243	.248
On-Base Percentage:	.315	.327
Slugging Percentage:	.388	.415
Runs Per Game:	4.08	5.01
OPS:	.703	.743

GAMES PLAYED: Matt Olson started all 162 of Atlanta's regular season games, as he has done every season since Atlanta acquired him before the start of the 2022 season.

- The other MLB players to appear in 162 games last season were Philadelphia's Kyle Schwarber, New York-NL's Pete Alonso, the Athletics' Brent Rooker and Cincinnati's Elly De La Cruz... Rafael Devers played 73 games for Boston before being dealt to San Francisco, where he played 90 games, giving him a 163-game total.
- Olson has played all 162 games in each of the first four seasons of his Braves tenure (2022-24), while also doing so in 2018, as a member of the A's.

BASES ON BALLS: Marcell Ozuna (94) and Matt Olson (91) each logged 90-plus walks last season, the only pair of teammates in Major League Baseball to do so.

- Since 2021, just one other pair of teammates has drawn 90-plus walks in tandem...Aaron Judge (133) and Juan Soto (129) each did so for the New York Yankees in 2024.
- Just three times in history have the Atlanta Braves hosted a pair of 90-walk players...Before Olson and Ozuna, Bob Elliott (90) and Eddie Stanky (113) did it for the Boston Braves in 1949, while Henry Aaron (92) and Darrell Evans (90) did it in 1972.
- After the All-Star Break, Jurickson Profar tallied 47 bases on balls...That total tied for third in that time, and only trailed Judge and Soto in Major League Baseball.
- As a club, Atlanta finished second in the NLand third in Major League Baseball with 575 walks, only trailing the New York Yankees (639) and the Los Angeles Dodgers (580).

AWARDS: Three Braves batters were honored with National League Player of the week status last season: Ronald Acuña Jr. (June 14), Michael Harris II (July 26) and Matt Olson (September 20).

- During Acuña Jr.'s stretch, he batted .545 (12-for-22) with nine runs, a double, three home runs, six RBI, a stolen base and five walks...The club went 4-2 against the Giants, Brewers, and Rockies in that run.
- In Harris II's six games of eligibility, he hit .455 (10-for-22) with five runs, a double, two triples, two home runs and three RBI.
- Matt Olson slashed .419/.486/1.000 (13-for-31) to earn his award, logging 10 runs, four doubles, a triple, four home runs and 11 RBI in the process.

CARLOS MÉNDEZ

ROVING HITTING INSTRUCTOR

• The 2026 season is Carlos Méndez' 18th in the Atlanta Braves organization and his first as a roving hitting instructor.

• Méndez spent the 2025 season as an assistant hitting coach with Atlanta, marking his first season of major league coaching experience.

- Prior to joining the major league staff, he was a hitting coach in Atlanta's system from 2008-24 at each level of the organization...Made stops with the Braves' Rookie-Level (2008-10, '13, '24), Single-A (2011-12), High-A (2014-17), Double-A (2018-19) and Triple-A affiliates (2021-23).
- In 2019 with Double-A Mississippi, he instructed 20-year-old outfielders Christian Pache and Drew Waters, the top 2 Braves' prospects according to MLB.com at season's end...Waters won the Southern League batting title (.319, 134-for-420) and became the first Mississippi player to win league MVP while Pache earned Post-Season All-Star honors.
- Oversaw the development of Austin Riley (81 G) and Ronald Acuña Jr. (28 G) with High-A Florida in 2018.
- Signed by Kansas City as an international free agent at 17 out of Caracas, Venezuela on January 10, 1991.
- Played in 16 minor league seasons from 1992-2007 between Kansas City (1992-99), Detroit (2000-01), Oakland (2002), Baltimore (2003-04) and Atlanta (2005-07)...Hit .296 in 1,493 career minor league games.
- Made his MLB debut with Baltimore at Anaheim on May 22, 2003...Entered as a pinch hitter in the eighth inning and doubled off RHP Brendan Donnelly...Appeared in 26 major league games, all in 2003, batting .222 (10-for-45).
- Spent his final three seasons (2005-07) playing in Atlanta's system with Triple-A Richmond...Named an International League Mid-Season All-Star in 2006...Won the Governor's Cup in 2007...Hit a solo home run in the championship-clinching game versus Durham on September 15 (G2).
- Carlos and his wife, Cortney, have two children: Carlos Jr. and Tatiana.

GREG WALKER

ROVING HITTING INSTRUCTOR

• The 2026 season marks Greg Walker's 15th in the Atlanta Braves organization, including his fifth as hitting instructor.

- He joined the organization in 2012 as the club's major-league hitting coach, a role he held for three seasons under skipper Fredi González.
- He then transitioned to the front office, serving as a special advisor to baseball operations for six seasons, 2015-20…In that role, he worked with minor league hitters for spring training and at minor league facilites throughout the season.
- Previous to his time with the Braves, Walker was the hitting coach for the Chicago White Sox for parts of nine seasons, 2003-11.
- Walker enjoyed a nine-year major-league career, playing all but 14 of 855 games with the White Sox, 1982-90…He finished his career with the Baltimore Orioles in 1990.
- He was the White Sox nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award in 1986 and received the Chicago Baseball Writers' "Good Guy" award in 1990.
- The Georgia native was originally drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in 1977.
- Walker, 66, resides in Douglas, Ga. with his wife, Carman…The couple has three daughters, Kaycee, Leigh Ann and Lauren.

MATT TUIASOSOPO

INFIELD COORDINATOR

• Matt Tuiasosopo is entering his eighth season in the Braves organization and his first full season as the minor league infield coordinator.

• He previously was the Braves' third base coach and assisted with Atlanta's infield from 2024 until June 2, 2025, when he transitioned into his current role.

- Managed Triple-A Gwinnett from 2021-23, totaling a 207-208 (.499) across the three seasons.
- The Bellevue, Wa. native served as the third base coach for the National League in the 2022 Sirius XM All-Star Futures Game and managed the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League that offseason.
- Was a member of the coaching staff at the Braves' alternate training site in 2020.
- Made his managerial debut with Single-A Rome in 2019 and earned the Bobby Cox Award as the organization's top manager.
- Selected by Seattle in the third round (93rd overall) of the 2004 First-Year Player Draft out of Woodinville High School (Wa.)…Played in 14 professional seasons between Seattle (2004-11), New York-NL (2012), Detroit (2013), Toronto (2014), Chicago-AL (2014-15) and Atlanta (2016-17)…Spent one season with New Britain of the independent Atlantic League in 2018.
- Played in 155 major league games across five seasons with Seattle (2008-10, 71), Detroit (2013, 81) and Atlanta (2016, 3), slashing .206/.288/.353 (74-for-360) with 15 doubles, 12 homers and 45 RBI while appearing primarily in left field (77 G).
- Made his major league debut with Seattle versus New York-AL on September 5, 2008, starting at third base and batting seventh…Doubled off LHP Andy Pettitte in his second at-bat for his first major league hit.
- Hit his first major league homer off LHP Brian Tallet on September 27, 2009, at Toronto.
- His father, Manu, was selected by the Seattle Seahawks out of UCLA in the first round in 1979…The defensive lineman played for both Seattle (1979-83) and the San Francisco 49ers (1984-86), winning Super Bowl XIX.
- His brother, Marques, was the Oakland Raider's second-round pick in 2001 out of the University of Washington and played for Oakland (2001-06, '08) and the New York Jets (2007) before transitioning to college coaching…Most recently served as the Detroit Lions' offensive assistant in 2025, his first professional coaching experience.
- Matt and his wife, Abi, have three sons: Josiah, Haven and Malaki.

OUTFIELDER Full Name Henry Louis Aaron

Batted Right Threw Right
Height 6-0 Weight 180
DOB 2/5/1934 Born Mobile, AL
Died: 1/22/21 in Atlanta, GA
Years with Braves: 1954-74
Number Retired 1975

One of the greatest hitters of all time, Hank Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for 97.8 percent. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron re-wrote baseball's record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); and Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), and home runs (755), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), fourth in runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), 10th in doubles (624), 12th in singles (2,294) and is tied for 18th in years of service (23). His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration. On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later. Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs).

In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award. He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thomson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972. During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves. Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959. Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83. From December of 1989 until his death, he served as Braves' Senior Vice President and in February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

6

MANAGER Full Name Robert Joe Cox

Bats Right Throws Right
Height 6-0 Weight 185
DOB 5/21/1941 Resides Tulsa, OK
Years With Braves 1978-1981, 1990-2010
Number Retired 2011

Known as the consummate "players" manager, Bobby Cox treated everyone with respect and dignity. He spent 29 seasons as a Major League skipper, including 25 seasons in two stints at the helm of the Braves. His 2,504 wins rank fourth all-time and include a franchise-best 2,149 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox posted an overall career record of 2,504-2001-3 (.556). The 2010 campaign marked his final season on the bench, as Atlanta went 91-71 and claimed the National League's Wild Card. The 2010 campaign was Cox's 15th with 90 or more wins, tying him for second all-time in 90-win seasons with Hall of Fame skipper Joe McCarthy (15) and putting him one behind the legendary John McGraw (16). Cox and McCarthy are the only managers in Major League history to compile six 100-win seasons. On June 8, 2009, Cox posted his 2,000th Braves victory, making him just the fourth skipper in big-league history to claim 2,000 wins with one team, joining Connie Mack (Athletics), John McGraw (Giants) and Walter Alston (Dodgers). On September 29, 2004, in the season's final home game, Cox earned his 2,000th career victory with a 6-4 decision over the New York Mets. He became just the ninth skipper in big-league history to reach the milestone. Cox won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 straight in Atlanta that led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). He had a string of 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 to 2005, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time in consecutive winning campaigns. Cox was voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America four times (1985 with Toronto and 1991, 2004 and 2005 with Atlanta). The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the league's top skipper seven times with the Braves and eight times overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936. In 1991 the Associated Press named him MLB Manager of the Year, as he became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985. Cox brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports championship in 1995 when the Braves beat Cleveland, four games to two, in the World Series. Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to '81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's NL West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985. Cox returned to the Braves as general manager in October 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for great success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz as General Manager in October of that year. When Braves owner Ted Turner fired Cox in 1981, Turner was asked at the press conference who was likely to be the next manager. "It would be Bobby Cox if I hadn't just fired him," Turner said. "We need someone like him around here." The Braves retired Cox's uniform number 6 and inducted him into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2011. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2014, along with two of his former pitchers, Greg Maddux and Tom Glavine.

TOM GLAVINE

47

PITCHER Full Name Thomas Michael Glavine

Bats Left Throws Left
Height 6-0 Weight 205
DOB 3/25/1966 Born Concord, MA
Years With Braves 1987-2002, 2008
Number Retired 2010

Tom Glavine won 305 regular-season games in his 22-year Major League career. But it was his eight innings of one-hit, shutout baseball in Game 6 of the 1995 World Series that accounted for his most significant victory. The Braves won 1-0 to capture the first championship in Atlanta history, and Glavine earned the series Most Valuable Player. The left-hander arrived in Atlanta in 1987 and he won 20 or more games each year from 1991 to 1993. He won two Cy Young awards, first in 1991 and then in 1998. From 1993 to 1999, the Braves featured arguably the game's top starting rotation – led by Glavine, Greg Maddux and John Smoltz. Over that seven-year stretch, Atlanta won six NL West Division titles and the League Championship Series in 1995, 1996 and 1999 in addition to the 1995 World Series. Glavine also pitched in two other Fall Classics – in 1991 and 1992. Following the 2002 season, Glavine signed as a free agent with the New York Mets.

He won his 300th game on August 5, 2007, an 8-3 verdict over the Chicago Cubs, becoming the 23rd pitcher and just the sixth left-hander to reach that plateau. Glavine returned to Atlanta in 2008 before retiring after the 2009 season. On the Braves' career lists, Glavine ranks fourth in wins (244) and strikeouts (2,091). He had five 20-win seasons, leading the NL or tying for the lead each time. Glavine's lifetime ledger was 305-203 with a 3.54 ERA, and his 682 games started ranked 12th on baseball's all-time list when he retired. Possessing excellent control, the 10-time All-Star was a master at mixing up the speed of his pitches and locating them on – or just off – the corners of the strike zone. He also won four Silver Slugger Awards. Glavine was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2014, after earning 91.9 percent of the vote in his first year on the ballot.

ANDRUW JONES

25

OUTFIELDER Full Name Andruw Rudolf Jones

Bats Right Throws Right
Height 6-1 Weight 225
DOB 4/23/1977 Born Willemstad, Curacao
Years With Braves 1996-2007
Number Retired 2023

Andruw Jones achieved notoriety as one of the premier defensive center fielders in baseball history. Combining an uncanny ability to get a jump on the ball with a strong arm, he earned 10 straight Gold Gloves while leading National League players at his position in putouts six times and assists on three occasions. Jones supplied plenty of offensive flare, as well. In Game 1 of the 1996 World Series, at age 19, he became the youngest player to hit a home run in the Fall Classic – going deep twice (in his first two at-bats) against the New York Yankees. Jones enjoyed his finest season at the plate in 2005, leading the majors with a then-franchise-record 51 home runs and the NL with 128 RBI. He was named Sporting News Major League Player of the Year and winner of the NL Hank Aaron Award and a Silver Slugger Award. A five-time All-Star, Jones played for 10 of Atlanta's record 14 division championship teams. On the Braves' career lists, he ranks fourth in extra-base hits (732); fifth in runs (1,045), doubles (330), home runs (368), total bases (3,185) and RBI (1,117); sixth in games played (1,761) and at-bats (6,408); and seventh in hits (1,683). He averaged 157 games per year over his 11 full seasons in Atlanta. Jones subsequently played for the Los Angeles Dodgers, Texas Rangers, Chicago White Sox and Yankees. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2016. The native of Curacao was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2026 after making extraordinary advances on the ballot over his nine years of eligibility. The 7.3 percent of the vote he received in his first year is the lowest of any player to eventually be elected for enshrinement. Jones and fellow 2026 inductee Carlos Beltrán joined Kirby Puckett and Ken Griffey Jr. as the only center fielders to be elected since 1981.

Chipper Jones went from a first overall draft pick to a first-ballot Hall of Famer. In between, he spent his entire 18-year major league career in a Braves uniform, playing in more games than anyone in Atlanta history (2,499). He is the Atlanta career leader in virtually every offensive category, including hits (2,726), doubles (549), home runs (468), RBI (1,623), runs (1,619), total bases (4,755), extra-base hits (1,055), walks (franchise-record 1,512), on-base percentage (franchise-record .401) and at-bats (8,984). His .303 batting average and .529 slugging percentage rank second and his 38 triples tied for second. On the franchise career lists, Jones is second to Hank Aaron in games, at-bats, runs, hits, doubles, RBI, total bases and extra-base hits; third in home runs and slugging percentage; and tied for fifth in batting average. Jones is the lone switch-hitter in Major League Baseball history with a lifetime .300 batting average and 300-plus home runs. Only Frankie Frisch posted a higher average (.316), only Eddie Murray collected more RBI (1,917) and only Mickey Mantle (536) and Murray (504) slugged more homers. The Braves selected Jones in the 1990 amateur draft, and five years later he was runner-up for National League Rookie of the Year honors (to Los Angeles pitcher Hideo Nomo). Jones evolved into a premier third baseman and was an eight-time All-Star, including four starts. He was named the 1999 NL Most Valuable Player after batting .319 with 41 doubles, 45 homers, 110 RBI, 116 runs and 126 walks. Five other times he finished in the top 10 in MVP balloting. On July 5, 2007, Jones passed Dale Murphy for the most home runs in Atlanta annals. In 2008, Jones led the league with a .364 batting average (third-best in franchise history). He owns four of the top 10 season on-base percentages in franchise history, including an Atlanta-record .470 mark in 2008. In his first year of eligibility for the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2018, Jones received 97.2 percent of the vote. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2013 and the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2015..

GREG MADDUX

31

PITCHER Full Name Gregory Alan Maddux

Bats Right Throws Right
Height 6-0 Weight 170
DOB 4/14/1966 Born San Angelo, TX
Years With Braves 1993-2003
Number Retired 2009

Greg Maddux became the most dominant pitcher in baseball during his 11 seasons with the Braves from 1993 to 2003. On the heels of winning his first Cy Young Award in 1992 with the Chicago Cubs, Maddux signed with the Braves as a free agent and proceeded to win three consecutive Cy Young awards. With Atlanta, Maddux led the NL in ERA four times (1993, 1994, 1995 and 1998) and wins twice (1994 and 1995). His franchise-record 1.56 ERA during the 1994 season was the second-lowest in the major leagues since Bob Gibson's 1.12 mark in 1968. In 1995, Maddux went 19-2 with a 1.63 ERA while leading the league with 209.2 innings pitched, 10 complete games and three shutouts and helping the Braves win the World Series. On the Braves' career lists, Maddux ranks second in ERA (2.63), fifth in strikeouts (1,828), sixth in wins (194) and 10th in shutouts (21). The right-hander known as "Mad Dog" featured pinpoint control and uncanny late movement on his fastball. After leaving Atlanta, Maddux had a second stint with the Cubs and before playing for the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Diego Padres. He won 15 or more games for 17 consecutive seasons (1988-2004) – the only pitcher in major league history to do so. Upon his retirement, Maddux ranked eighth all-time with 355 wins and 10th with 3,371 strikeouts. He won a record 18 Gold Gloves, including 10 with the Braves. He was an eight-time All-Star and the NL starting pitcher in 1994, 1997 and 1998. Maddux was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2009. At the induction ceremony, manager Bobby Cox remarked: "I get asked all the time was he the best pitcher I ever saw? Was he the smartest pitcher I ever saw? The most competitive I ever saw? The best teammate I ever saw? The answer is yes to all of those." Maddux was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2014, earning 97.2 percent of the vote (the 10th-highest total ever) in his first year on the ballot.

INFIELDER Full Name Edwin Lee Mathews

Height 6-1 Weight 200
DOB 10/13/1931 Born Texarkana, TX
Died: 2/18/2001 in LaJolla, CA
Years With Braves 1952-66 Number Retired: 1969

Eddie Mathews is the only player in franchise history to play for the Braves in Boston (1952), Milwaukee (1953-65) and Atlanta (1966). The nine-time N.L. All-Star third baseman ranks second in club annals with 493 home runs; and third with 2,223 games, 8,049 at-bats, 1,452 runs, 2,201 hits, 338 doubles, 1,388 RBI and 4,158 total bases. Mathews finished third in Rookie of the Year balloting in 1952, and the following year was runner-up for Most Valuable Player after leading the NL with 47 home runs (tied for the second-most in Braves' history) to go with a .302 batting average and a franchise-record 135 RBI. Mathews also was the MVP runner-up in 1959, when he batted .306 with a league-best 46 homers and 114 RBI. He played for the 1957 World Series champions (his 10th-inning two-run homer won Game 4) and the 1958 NL pennant winners. Following the 1966 season, Mathews was traded to the Houston Astros, and he became the seventh player in baseball history to hit 500 career home runs July 14, 1967. He subsequently played for the Detroit Tigers in 1967 and 1968. Mathews returned to the Braves as a coach in 1971 and served as manager from 1972 to 1974, compiling a 149-161-1 record. Mathews was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1978 and into the Braves Hall of Fame in 1999.

Height 6-5 Weight 215
DOB 3/12/1956 Born Portland, OR
Years With Braves 1976-90
Number Retired 1994

The Braves drafted Dale Murphy No. 5 overall in 1974, but five years later he had yet to reach his potential as a sometime catcher/sometime first baseman. Then, manager Bobby Cox made Murphy a full-time outfielder and from 1980 to 1989, Murphy averaged 31 home runs and 93 RBI. He was the back-to-back NL Most Valuable Player in 1982 (.281, 36 home runs, 109 RBI and 23 stolen bases) and 1983 (.302, 36 home runs, 121 RBI, franchise-record 131 runs scored and 30 stolen bases). In 1983, Murphy became the sixth different player in baseball history with 30 home runs and 30 stolen bases in a season. He led the NL with 332 total bases and tied for the lead with 36 home runs in 1984 and topped the circuit with 37 home runs and 118 runs scored the following year. From September 26, 1981, to July 8, 1986, Murphy played in 740 consecutive games. He appeared in seven All-Star Games – leading all vote-getters in 1985 – and won five Gold Glove Awards and four Silver Slugger Awards. Throughout his career, Murphy displayed a high moral character, receiving the Lou Gehrig Award in 1985 and the Roberto Clemente Award in 1988. On the Braves' career lists, he is fourth in games played (1,926), runs (1,103), hits (1,901), home runs (371), RBI (1,143) and total bases (3,394), and he is second in each category to Chipper Jones since the franchise moved to Atlanta. "Murph" was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2000.

Height 6-1 Weight 180
DOB 4/1/1939 Born Blaine, OH
Died: 12/26/20 in Flowery Branch, GA
Years With Braves 1964-83, 1987 Number Retired 1984

Phil Niekro baffled opposing batters with his knuckleball for nearly a quarter of a century. He owns or shares 13 Atlanta career pitching records and is the franchise career leader with 740 games pitched, while ranking second in games started (595), innings pitched (4,622.2), shutouts (43) and strikeouts (2,912); third in wins (268); fifth in complete games (226); and 10th in ERA (3.20). Niekro was a three-time 20-game winner (23 in 1969, 20 in 1974 and 21 in 1979) and won 10 or more games for 14 straight seasons from 1967 until the strike-shortened 1981 campaign. Niekro authored a no-hitter against San Diego on Aug. 5, 1973, winning 9-0 at Atlanta Stadium. Niekro pitched for the New York Yankees (1984-85), Cleveland Indians (1986-87) and Toronto Blue Jays (1987) before returning to the Braves late in 1987 at the age of 48. On Oct. 6, 1985, Niekro shut out Toronto 8-0 for his 300th career win. Niekro ranks fourth in baseball history with 5,404.1 innings pitched, 11th with 3,342 strikeouts and 16th with 318 wins. Over the course of his 24-year career, he was a five-time All-Star – four times with Atlanta – and won five Gold Glove Awards. "Knucksie" was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997 and into the Braves Hall of Fame in 1999.

When Braves General Manager Bobby Cox acquired 20-year-old John Smoltz from Detroit in 1987 for 36-year-old Doyle Alexander, he did so with an eye on the future. Smoltz delivered, excelling as both a starter and reliever over the the next two decades. He is the only pitcher in MLB history with 200 wins and 150 saves. In 14 full seasons starting, he won 14 or more games 10 times. Twice, he led the NL or shared the lead in wins (1996 and 2006), innings pitched (1996 and 1997) and strikeouts (1992 and 1996). He ranked in the top 10 in ERA eight times. Smoltz won the Cy Young Award in 1996 while fanning a franchise-record 276. Following "Tommy John" surgery that sidelined him for all of 2000, Smoltz closed for three-plus seasons. He set an NL record with 55 saves in 2002 and finished third for the Cy Young Award. Smoltz became the 16th member of the 3,000-strikeout club on April 22, 2008. On the Braves' career lists, he ranks first in strikeouts (3,011), second in saves (154) and fifth in wins (210). In 40 postseason games with Atlanta, Smoltz was 15-4 with four saves a 2.65 ERA. Smoltz, Tom Glavine and Greg Maddux anchored a pitching staff that helped the Braves win 14 straight division titles from 1991 to 2005 and the 1995 World Series. Smoltz was the only player to be a part of each division championship. Smoltz was an eight-time All-Star who concluded his career with Boston and St. Louis in 2009. He won with the Roberto Clemente Award in 2005 and with the Branch Rickey Award in 2007. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in June 2012 and was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Famer in 2015, joining Glavine and Maddux in Cooperstown.

PITCHER Full Name Warren Edward Spahn

Batted Left Threw Left
Height 6-0 Weight 175
DOB 4/23/1921 Born Buffalo, NY
Died: 11/24/2003 in Broken Arrow, OK
Years With Braves 1942, 1946-64 Number Retired: 1965

With 363 wins, Warren Spahn is the winningest left-handed pitcher in baseball history. Spahn spent the first 20 of his 21 major league seasons with the Boston and Milwaukee Braves. He holds franchise records for games started (635), innings pitched (5,046), wins (356) and shutouts (63). On baseball's all-time lists, he is sixth in shutouts and eighth in innings pitched. Famous for his fluid, high-kicking delivery, Spahn won 20 or more games 13 times, a National League record, leading the league on eight occasions. Spahn holds major league records for most seasons topping the league in wins and complete games along with most consecutive seasons leading in wins (5, 1957-61) and complete games (7, 1957-63). Spahn won the 1957 Cy Young Award and was runner-up in 1958, 1960 and 1961. His 14 All-Star Game selections are the most all-time among pitchers. Spahn spun two no-hitters, defeating Philadelphia 4-0 on Sept. 16, 1960, and the San Francisco Giants 1-0 on April 28, 1961, both at County Stadium in Milwaukee. Spahn debuted with the Braves in 1942 and then served with distinction in the Army for three-plus years, being awarded a Purple Heart. "Spahnie," who concluded his career with the New York Mets and Giants in 1965, was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1973 and into the Braves Hall of Fame in 1999.

ATLANTA-FULTON COUNTY STADIUM (1966-96)

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. The club broke ground on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The first regular-season game was played April 12, 1966, vs. Pittsburgh, and the final regular-season contest was played September 23, 1996, vs. Montreal. The final game took place on October 24, 1996, when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in Game 5 of the World Series. The approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. The architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. The general contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' to the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' and the ballpark had a capacity of 52,769 for baseball. The stadium was also used by the NFL's Atlanta Falcons until the club moved into the Georgia Dome in 1992 and was used as the baseball venue for the 1996 Olympic Games.

TURNER FIELD (1997-2016)

Originally built to serve as the heart of the 1996 Summer Olympics, Turner Field became the home of the Braves in 1997. The team played there through the 2016 season, going 951-667 (.588) in the regular season at the park, while winning 10 NL East titles. The park sits between Ralph David Abernathy Boulevard to the north, Hank Aaron Drive to the east, Bill Lucas Drive to the south and Pollard Boulevard to the west. The $209-million stadium began construction in 1993 and opened three years later as Centennial Olympic Stadium. The 85,000-seat structure served as the centerpiece of the 1996 Summer Olympics, housing the opening and closing ceremonies, along with track and field events. After the completion of the Paralympic Games in August, the stadium was retrofitted into a baseball-only, open-air, natural grass facility over the course of seven months from September until April of 1997. Much of the north end of the stadium was taken out to install the outfield walls, while Entry Plaza, the main entrance to Turner Field, was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track-and-field complex were removed. The Braves played their first game at Turner Field on April 4, 1997, beating the Chicago Cubs, 5-4. The club drew 3,464,488 fans in their first season, the second-highest single-season total in franchise history. Over their 20 seasons at the ballpark, the Braves welcomed 52,439,513 regular season fans to Turner Field, while surpassing two million fans in every year.

The Braves beat the Detroit Tigers, 1-0, in Turner Field's final game on October 2, 2016. The club moved their offices out of the ballpark in December of that year, with Georgia State University taking control after purchasing the stadium for $22.8 million.

ATLANTA'S OPENING DAY RECORDS

HOME RUNS

The Braves have hit 58 home runs on Opening Day since the club moved to Atlanta in 1966. Five players (Dale Murphy, Fred McGriff, Andruw Jones, Brian McCann, and Freddie Freeman) hold the Atlanta-era record with three career homers in openers, while Joe Torre, McGriff and Edgar Renteria are the only Atlanta Braves with a multi-homer game on Opening Day. In 2018, Nick Markakis hit the only game-ending home run on Opening Day in Atlanta franchise history, driving a 1-1, ninth-inning pitch out to right field to give the Braves an 8-5 win.

MISC. INFORMATION

MEDIA GUIDELINES

CREDENTIAL APPLICATION PROCESS: In accordance with MLB, in order to attend a Braves regular-season game, only credentials submitted through https://credentials.mlb.com will be considered, and credentials will only be issued to legitimate news-gathering agencies that have applied via the website. Requests made in-person, via email, or by phone will not be honored.

BBWAA cards, including gold card and lifetime membership cards, will be allowed at Truist Park for the 2025 season. For local media holding BBWAA cards, please notify a member of the Braves PR staff if you are planning to cover a game in person so that you may be included in the media tally for that particular day.

For any questions related to the credential application process, please contact the Braves' credential representative, Mitch George, at mitch.george@braves.com.

ARRIVAL TO TRUIST PARK [PARKING AND CREDENTIAL PICK UP]: Specific parking information will be conveyed to media upon their approval for a credential. Please check your email for parking details prior to arrival.

All writing press, photographers and videographers can pick up their credential upon entrance to the ballpark at the Third Base Gate. All media needing access to the "TV Compound" area will enter through the guard shack at Gate One, adjacent to the TV truck entrance on Circle 75 Parkway.

A government-issued photo ID (driver's license or passport) is required to pick up a credential. Each individual must pick up their own credential. The credential must be visible at all times inside Truist Park.

For regular season games, Truist Park will open to media four (4) hours prior to first pitch.

PRESS BOX: The Truist Park press box is located in the upper deck, behind home plate, around sections 323-329. All media seating will be assigned during the 2025 season. Media may be asked to sit in auxiliary broadcast booths or other select locations.

Upon arrival, writing press may take the Third Base elevators to level "UL" to access the press box.

Wi-Fi can be accessed using the network "MLB-Press" with the password "Hom3Run!"

Water, soft drinks, coffee and snacks are available in the press box break room. To get there, take the third base elevator to the upper level ("UL") and take a right; the entrance will be on the left. The table and chairs in the main seating area are reserved for the writing press covering the game.

INTERVIEW ACCESS: During the 2025 season, all player, manager, and coach availability will take place in-person either in the clubhouse or interview room. Players, managers and/or coaches will be made available before and after each regular-season game (home and road).

Media members attending open clubhouse must have articulable coverage objectives.

FIELD ACCESS: Media may access the field via the Third Base tunnel by taking the Third Base elevator to Field Level. The field access point will be clearly marked near the visiting clubhouse. They will have access to the warning track behind home plate, ranging from first base to third base. Media may also access the dugout during the 2025 season.

STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers are allowed to shoot inside Truist Park. The exact shooting location is fluid, and Braves photographer Kevin D. Liles (kdliles@gmail.com) will be in touch with specifics prior to the game. Please speak with him or another Braves communications staffer prior to shooting.

Still photography is prohibited within the press box.

TELEVISION AFFILIATES & VIDEOGRAPHERS: Television affiliates will be allowed inside Truist Park for pre-game access and post-game access. Gameday video can be captured for newsgathering purposes only. Ancillary programming, such as pre-game and post-game shows, highlight shows, coaches shows, year-in-review, week-in-review shows, and videocasts are not permitted.

Videographers are allowed to conduct live shots from the Truist Park concourse. They can also be shot from the warning track during batting practice (see "Field Access" for more information) and the pre-game ceremony. The affiliate's talent and/or other personnel will be given access to the press box or may join the videographer.

All live shots during the rightsholder window once the game starts need to be conducted outside Truist Park. Please make the Braves corporate communications staff aware in advance of your arrival (Sarit Babboni, Karely Avila Ledesma, Shawn Johnson). They will work with the television affiliate/videographer to let them know where they can shoot from.

During the game, shooting/recording of any kind inside the ballpark is strictly prohibited. Following the game, recorded video is permissible inside the ballpark and can be posted once official game broadcast is off the air.

TV sets, drones, and sponsored segments/content are not allowed in The Battery Atlanta or Truist Park.

MEDIA DINING: Media dining is available in the back of the press box for $10.

PRINTED GAMEDAY MATERIALS & OTHER MEDIA NEEDS: Game notes and lineups will be printed and made available near the press box break room prior to each game. This information, as well as current rosters, stat pack and select audio/video assets can be found on bravespressbox.com.

BRAVES X ACCOUNT: Relevant information regarding clubhouse hours and media availabilities can be found at @BravesComms on X. Follow the account and reach out to a PR staff member for approval.

2026 BRAVES BROADCASTERS

RADIO: The Atlanta Braves, WCNN 680 the Fan and WCNN 106.7 the Fan, the Atlanta Braves flagship rightsholders, will carry all 162 regular season games and all Spring Training games. The Braves Radio Network includes over 150 affiliates across the Southeast, one of the largest radio affiliates in all major league sports.

TELEVISION: The Atlanta Braves will launch BravesVision, a multimedia platform owned and operated by the organization that will become the official local television home of the Braves beginning with the 2026 baseball season. BravesVision will produce more than 140 games, as well as extensive pre-game and post-game programming, throughout the 2026 regular season and give fans across the organization's six state territory multiple options to watch Braves games without blackouts. In addition to the local BravesVision telecasts, the team will appear in nationally televised games with MLB's exclusive broadcast partners – FOX/FS1, ESPN, TBS, NBC/Peacock and Apple TV.

BRANDON GAUDIN BravesVision

- Brandon Gaudin is set to serve his fourth season as Atlanta's lead play-by-play annoucer in 2026. He also broadcasts NFL, MLB and college basketball for FOX Sports.
- In his first season as the Braves' play-by-play voice, he was named NSMA's Georgia Sportscaster of the Year.
- His voice is also well known in the gaming world, as he has been the play-by-play voice on the Madden NFL franchise each year since Madden NFL 17 launched in 2016.
- Previously, Gaudin was the Voice of the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets, calling football, men's basketball, and baseball from 2013-16. He has remained an Atlanta resident ever since.
- Gaudin is a graduate of Butler University, where he was named "Most Outstanding Communications Student" and one of the "Top 10 Male students" in his graduating class of 2006.
- After college, he began his professional career calling Minor League Baseball games for the Orem Owlz in the Los Angeles Angels organization.
- Originally from Evansville, Indiana, in 2008 he got to return to his hometown to be the "Voice of the Evansville Purple Aces" for three seasons. Following that, he was hired by his alma mater, Butler, to be their play-by-play voice from 2010-13 (and was on the call for their magical run to the Final Four in 2011).
- Gaudin's resume also includes over nine years calling NFL and NCAA Men's Basketball tournament games for Westwood One Radio (2015-present).
- The first professional sporting event he attended was Game 5 of the 1991 World Series where the Braves defeated the Minnesota Twins 14-5. He returned to Atlanta for World Series trips in 1992 and 1995.

C.J. NITKOWSKI BravesVision

- C.J. Nitkowski in 2026 enters his third season in the Braves broadcast booth where he will serve as the lead analyst.
- A former MLB pitcher, Nitkowski was an analyst for Texas Rangers telecasts on Bally Sports Southwest from 2017-23 where he was nominated for 11 Lone Star Emmy Awards, winning six times.
- Nitkowski also has national TV experience, working as an analyst in the booth for FOX and FS1 from 2014-19 and in a studio role for FOX and FS1's highlight, pre, and postgame shows.
- During his 10-year MLB playing career, Nitkowski pitched for eight different teams, including 22 games with the Braves during the 2004 season.
- His MLB career lasted from 1995-2005 and included 336 games pitched for Cincinnati, Detroit, Houston, New York-NL, Texas, Atlanta, New York-AL and Washington.
- Nitkowski also spent four additional seasons pitching in Japan and Korea before beginning his broadcasting career in 2013.
- A native of Suffern, N.Y., Nitkowski has lived in Alpharetta for 19 years with his wife, Megan. The couple has three children, Matthew, Brooke and Luke.

JEFF FRANCOEUR BravesVision

- The 2026 season marks Francoeur's ninth season in the broadcast booth...He served as a guest analyst for select Braves games in both the radio and television booths during the 2018 season.
- Francoeur retired in 2017 following a 12-year major league career, during which he appeared with Atlanta (2005-09; '16), New York-NL (2009-'10), Texas (2010), Kansas City (2011-'13), San Francisco (2013), San Diego (2014), Philadelphia (2015) and Miami (2016)...He was a career .261 (1,373-for-5,260) hitter over 1,480 games.
- Originally a first-round pick by Atlanta in the 2002 draft, Francoeur debuted with the Braves in 2005 and finished third in the N.L. Rookie of the Year balloting.
- He won a Rawlings Gold Glove award in the NL in 2007, and lead the league in outfield assists in three different seasons (2007, '10, '12).
- A native of Atlanta, Francoeur and his wife, Catie have four children - Emma Cate, Brayden, Eleanor and Camden - and reside in Suwanee.

BEN INGRAM Braves Radio Network

- 2026 is Ingram's 16th season with the Braves Radio Network...This is his eighth season with a regular role in the radio booth calling play-by-play alongside Joe Simpson.
- In 2022, he was named NSMA's Georgia Sportscaster of the Year.

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 26 until Sept. 1, when it becomes 28.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

DETERMINING WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

CONSECUTIVE GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

QUALIFYING MARKS: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 IP.

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

RELIEF PITCHERS' SAVE RULE: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions; 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

MAJOR LEAGUE SERVICE: A full year of service in the Major Leagues is 172 days.

ROOKIE RULE: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 26-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

DAY / NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a twi-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

INJURED LISTS

7-DAY INJURED LIST: Introduced in the 2011 season, the 7-day disabled list was created specifically for players with concussion symptoms. A 7-day IL stint cannot be backdated by more than five days.

10-DAY INJURED LIST: Minimum period of inactivity is 10 days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

15-DAY INJURED LIST: The 15-day injured list is specifically for pitchers and two-way players. It allows clubs to remove injured pitchers from the 26-man active roster while keeping them on the 40-man roster.

60-DAY INJURED LIST: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

REGULATION GAME

REGULATION GAME: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

TIE GAME: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

SUSPENDED GAME: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after is starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety. Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969.
